U.S. Postal Service Continues to Emphasize Safety and Restore Service after Tropical Storm Harvey

Houston, TX – The Postal Service continues to restore service to our customers. As an integral part of the communities we serve, the Postal Service is continuing recovery efforts every day, so we can reconnect customers and businesses with their mail. All of our major processing infrastructure is up and running and the mail is moving. Delivery is expanding every day and the vast majority of deliveries are being made as long as it is safe and accessible to do so. Customers are reminded that service restoration continues daily, and they should check our website regularly for the latest information on their mail service. The information can be found at: About.usps.com/news/service-alerts We are committed to serving our customers in the Greater Houston area as recovery from Hurricane Harvey continues.
