- WHO: David E. Williams, chief operating officer and executive vice president, U.S. Postal Service
- WHEN: Thursday, April 2, 2020, at 11 a.m. ET
- WHERE: Yew Dell Botanical Gardens
6220 Old LaGrange Road
Crestwood, KY 40014
- RSVP: Dedication ceremony attendees are encouraged to RSVP at usps.com/boutonnierecorsage.
- Background: These new stamps reflect the organic style popular for today's floral designs. Photographs of a boutonniere and corsage were used as the artwork for these chic stamps.

The Contemporary Boutonniere stamp is well suited for RSVP envelopes included inside wedding invitations. It is also a perfect touch for thank-you notes and announcements, in addition to regular correspondence. The 2-ounce

Garden Corsage stamp can accommodate the weight of heavy invitations, oversized greeting cards, and mailings that require extra postage.

The flower arrangements in both of these designs create beautiful botanical presentations.

Customers may purchase stamps and other philatelic products through the Postal Store at usps.com/shop, by calling 800-STAMP24 (800-782-6724), by mail through USA Philatelic or at Post Office locations nationwide.

The Postal Service receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.
