U.S. Postal Service Board of Governors To Meet on May 8

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Postal Service Board of Governors will meet Friday, May 8, in an open session at Postal Service headquarters, 475 L'Enfant Plaza SW, in Washington, DC. The public is welcome to attend the meeting, which begins at 3 p.m. ET in the Benjamin Franklin Room.

The board's expected agenda is:

1. Call to order and opening remarks from the chairwoman
2. Remarks from the postmaster general and CEO
3. Committee reports
4. Quarterly financial report
5. Quarterly service performance report
6. Approval of the meeting minutes
7. Approval of the tentative agenda for the August open meeting
8. Adjournment

Open session meetings of the USPS Board of Governors are available on live audio webcasts at <https://about.usps.com/who/leadership/board-governors/#sessions>. Three hours after the conclusion of the open session meeting, a recorded audio file will be available for listening. In compliance with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act, the audio webcast will be open-captioned.

Please Note: The United States Postal Service is an independent federal establishment, mandated to be self-financing and to serve every American community through the affordable, reliable and secure delivery of mail and packages to more than 170 million addresses six and often seven days a week. Overseen by a bipartisan Board of Governors, the Postal Service is celebrating its 250th year of service to customers amidst a network modernization plan aimed at restoring long-term financial sustainability, improving service, and maintaining the organization as one of America's most valued and trusted brands.

The Postal Service generally receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.
