R2-D2 collects for America: Two great forces team up for universal appeal

Deliver intrigue, the droid does?

In neighborhoods and street corners not so far, far away, about 400 collection boxes across America have been transformed into Star Wars character R2-D2 look-alikes to promote a new postal partnership.

About 400 collection boxes wrapped to look like Star Wars character R2-D2 made their debut at Post Offices across the country recently.

For anybody who missed seeing a Star Wars movie in the 30 years since the first installment was released, R2-D2 is the squat little Astromech droid who embodies the trust and dependability for which the Postal Service is so renowned.

The R2-D2 boxes will temporarily replace high-volume mailboxes in highly visible locations. Customers can drop mail in them just like any other collection box. And if you — and any customers — are curious about what it all means, go to the Web site printed on the R2-D2 “wrap” — www.uspsjedimaster.com.

Potter keynote speaker at GSA's Annual Mail Education Forum

When it came to delivering the keynote address at the General Services Administration's Annual Mail Education Forum, Postmaster General Jack Potter was more than qualified for the task. The theme for this year's forum was “Building on our Successes” — something Potter and every USPS employee is familiar with as we come off our seventh consecutive year of productivity improvement.

Postmaster General Jack Potter was the keynote speaker at General Services Administration's recent Annual Mail Education Forum.

Federal mail managers from various agencies were there to learn about USPS efforts to fulfill its basic mission — providing reliable, affordable, universal mail service to everyone in America. Potter spoke extensively about the opportunities the new postal law provides for the Postal Service — and the federal government.

Marrow donor and recipient meet during Capitol Hill ceremony

The 30,000 USPS employees who have joined the National Marrow Donor Program Registry exceed all organizations — public or private sector. To mark this commitment, a special ceremony on Capitol Hill recently featured a first-time meeting between a marrow recipient and the man who saved his life.

But this time, it was a USPS employee who received a life-saving marrow donation.

In 1986, Richard Tate, a 21-year Postal Service employee from Wilmington, DE, was diagnosed with chronic myelogenous leukemia. He was placed on the marrow transplant list. Doctors said Tate had two to three years to live.

But Tate endured until 1997, when a donor was found. "If it weren't for this transplant, I would not have been able to enjoy my four grandsons," Tate said.

Michael Bonner, Tate's donor, had been on the registry just six months before he learned he was a potential match. To learn how to become a donor, visit www.marlow.org or www.themarlowfoundation.org.

Marketing Outreach Articles available in Spanish

Marketing Strategy and Support has partnered with National Diversity Initiatives to get the 2007 Marketing Outreach Articles translated into Spanish.

Each article — a total of 74 for this year — covers a specific postal topic, explains USPS products and services and provides tips and useful information to make it easier for household and small business customers to use the Postal Service. The articles also help postmasters open and maintain positive communications with the editors of local newspapers, news directors of local radio stations and Postal Service customers.

Post Offices that serve Hispanic populations can check out the Spanish translation of the 2007 Marketing Outreach Articles. Visit blue.usps.gov/corporate/outreach/welcome.htm and click on Spanish Translations.

Energy efficient lighting leads to Seattle savings

It pays to be green. Seattle City Light, the city's municipal electric company, recently presented a check for $443,000 to the Seattle District, a rebate for installing new lighting at the Seattle Processing and Distribution Center.

The new lighting uses significantly less energy, provides better illumination and uses longer-lasting bulbs — not to mention brighter working conditions for Postal Service employees. The annual savings from the new lights for the 600,000-square-foot building are projected at $180,000 a year.

More than money was saved. The new lights conserve more than 3 million kilowatt hours a year, easing Seattle's energy demand. The electricity saved is enough to power 338 homes in Seattle for a year.

One more plus — the glass and the metal from the old light fixtures have been recycled.

Listen, my children: Stamp honors Longfellow Bicentennial

The Postal Service issued its Henry Wadsworth Longfellow commemorative stamp recently, honoring the 200th anniversary of the bard's birth.

Katherine Tobin, a member of the USPS Board of Governors, spoke at the issuance ceremony, which took place at the American Stamp Dealers show in

New York. "Longfellow was a giant in his time and he is a model for our time, a scholar and poet who loved his family, his nation, his fellow human beings and the pursuit of excellence throughout his life," she said.

Longfellow is the 23rd honoree in the popular Literary Arts commemorative stamp series, joining other American literary giants Ernest Hemingway, T.S. Eliot, Herman Melville and John Steinbeck.

The stamp is available online at www.usps.com/shop, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24 and at local Post Offices.

Domestic Mail Manual Revision: Using Intelligent Mail Barcodes on Flat-Size Mailpieces

Effective May 1, 2007, the Postal Service™ encourages mailers to use Intelligent Mail® barcodes by allowing their use on automation-rate First-Class Mail®, Periodicals, Standard Mail®, and Bound Printed Matter flat-size mailpieces for rate eligibility in lieu of POSTNET™ barcodes. We also will allow First-Class Mail, Periodicals, Standard Mail, and Bound Printed Matter flats with Intelligent Mail barcodes to participate in Confirm® service, and First-Class Mail and Periodicals flats with Intelligent Mail barcodes to participate in OneCode ACS™. We will revise parts 302, 333, 343, 363, 503, 507, 707, and Identifier (BEI). To obtain a BEI, OneCode ACS subscribers should contact the ACS department at the National Customer Support Center at 800-331-5746. Confirm subscribers approved for OneCode Confirm™ should incorporate their Confirm Subscriber ID (which is their BEI) when using Intelligent Mail barcodes. OneCode Confirm subscribers can contact Confirm Customer Assistance at 800-238-3150 or refer to Publication 197, Confirm Service Featuring OneCode Confirm, for specific instructions. Mailers printing the Intelligent Mail barcode solely for automation rate eligibility should contact the PostalOne!® Help Desk at 800-522-9085 to obtain a BEI. Complete specifications for Intelligent Mail barcodes are defined in the USPS® publication: USPS-B-3200, which is available for download at <http://ribbs.usps.gov/OneCodeSOLUTION/>.

of the Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) to incorporate these changes in our next update of the DMM.

Automation-rate flats are required to have a valid ZIP+4® or delivery point barcode. As of March 1, 2007, mailers have been able to use either type of barcode — an Intelligent Mail barcode or a delivery point barcode — on automation-rate letters. Allowing mailers to use Intelligent Mail barcodes on automation-rate flats encourages greater use of this information-rich barcode.

When mailers choose to use the Intelligent Mail barcode on flats, they must include coding for an optional endorsement line and an assigned numeric Business Entity

4.0 Barcode Placement

[Revise 4.1 and 4.2 to allow Intelligent Mail barcodes as follows:]

4.1 General Barcode Placement for Flats

On any flat-size piece claimed at automation rates, the piece may bear one POSTNET barcode or Intelligent Mail barcode under 4.2 or it may bear two POSTNET barcodes under 4.3. Other mailer-applied non-USPS barcodes may appear on the address side of the piece if the barcode format is not detectable or confusing to automated postal equipment.

4.2 Applying One Barcode

On any flat-size mailpiece claimed at an automation rate, the barcode may be anywhere on the address side as long as it is at least 1/8 inch from any edge of the piece. The portion of the surface of the piece on which the barcode is printed must meet the barcode dimensions and spacing requirements in 708.4.2.5, and the reflectance standards in 709.4.4. Intelligent Mail barcodes are subject to standards in 708.4.3.2. Address block barcodes are subject to the standards in 708.4.6a. through 708.4.6e.

13.3 Barcodes

13.3.1 General Barcode Requirement

[Revise the introductory text of 13.3.1 to allow Intelligent Mail barcodes on flats as follows:]

At the time of mailing, each piece in a mailing that is intended to generate Confirm service information must bear a customer-applied PLANET Code barcode under 13.3.4 or an Intelligent Mail barcode under 13.3.2. Instead of a PLANET Code barcode, mailers may apply an Intelligent Mail barcode, under 708.4.0, on letters or flats. Mailers must apply barcodes that meet the applicable specifications in 708.4.0 and the following standards:

- a. Origin Confirm pieces must bear:

* * * * *

[Revise item a3 by adding the option of using an Intelligent Mail barcode as follows:]

- 3. For other flat-size reply mail, the piece must bear both a PLANET Code barcode and a POSTNET barcode that correctly corresponds to the delivery address. Mailers may use an Intelligent Mail barcode under 13.3.2 and 708.4.0 instead of using a PLANET Code barcode and POSTNET barcode.

[Revise item b to allow an Intelligent Mail barcode on all destination Confirm pieces as follows:]

- b. Destination Confirm pieces must bear either an Intelligent Mail barcode or a PLANET Code barcode. If required by the rate claimed at the time of mailing, Intelligent Mail barcodes must correctly correspond to the delivery address. Mailers not using an Intelligent Mail barcode for Destination Confirm must use PLANET Code and POSTNET barcodes under these conditions:

* * * * *

13.3.2 Intelligent Mail Barcodes

[Revise 13.3.2 to allow Intelligent Mail barcodes on flats as follows:]

Customers participating in OneCode Confirm may apply Intelligent Mail barcodes on letter-size pieces or on flat-size pieces meeting automation-compatibility standards in 201.3.0 (letters) or 301.3.0 (flats). Do not apply a PLANET Code barcode to any mailpiece with an Intelligent Mail barcode. Only one Intelligent Mail barcode may appear on each piece, according to the standards below.

- a. Intelligent Mail barcodes meeting all applicable standards may be used in lieu of POSTNET barcodes. When using an Intelligent Mail barcode on letter-size pieces for rate eligibility and OneCode Confirm, place the barcode in any position permitted in 202.5.0.

- b. When using an Intelligent Mail barcode on letter-size pieces only for OneCode Confirm, place the barcode according to 202.5.0 or directly above the address block with the top of each bar less than 4 inches from the bottom of the mailpiece.
- c. When using an Intelligent Mail barcode on flat-size pieces, place the barcode according to 302.4.0.
- d. Mailers must generate Intelligent Mail barcodes by the same method used to receive USPS barcode certification during the application process in 13.2.3.
- e. Intelligent Mail barcodes must meet the barcode and format standards in 708.4.0 and in Specification USPS-B-3200, at <http://ribbs.usps.gov/OneCodeSOLUTION/>.

[Revise title and text of 3.2.6 to allow Intelligent Mail barcodes on flats and on Periodicals letters as follows:]

3.2.6 Additional Standards – When Using Intelligent Mail Barcodes

Mailers can access OneCode ACS using Intelligent Mail barcodes, which are capable of encoding a valid Service Type Identifier indicating the ancillary service requested, a numeric Business Entity Identifier (the equivalent of a participant code), and a unique numeric mailpiece identifier (keyline). This option is available for First-Class Mail and Periodicals letters and flat-size mailpieces only. “Address Service Requested” ancillary service is available on First-Class Mail and Periodicals flats and letters when using the Intelligent Mail barcode. Periodicals not requesting Address Service Requested will receive their current option of address correction notifications. The Service Type Identifier will indicate the ancillary service requested. Service Type Identifiers to request “Change Service Requested” ancillary service are available for First-Class Mail flats only. Printed endorsements must not be used to request these ancillary services in conjunction with an Intelligent Mail barcode. Mailpieces must meet the following specifications:

- a. Letter-size mailpieces must be automation-compatible. The Intelligent Mail barcode must appear at the top of or above the address block and must contain the correct delivery point routing code that corresponds to the delivery address.

- b. Flat-size mailpieces may be mailed at nonautomation or automation rates.
- c. If using a window envelope, maintain a clearance between the leftmost and rightmost bars and any printing or window edge of at least 1/8 inch, and maintain a clearance between the Intelligent Mail barcode and the top and bottom window edges of at least 1/25 inch. These clearances must be maintained during the insert's range of movement in the envelope.
- d. The Intelligent Mail barcode must contain an 11-digit delivery point code.
- e. The Intelligent Mail barcode must meet the technical specifications as described in 708.4.2 and USPS publication, Specification USPS-B-3200.

4.3 Intelligent Mail Barcodes

4.3.1 Definition

[Revise 4.3.1 by adding flats for rate eligibility, with the inclusion of optional endorsement line information, as follows:]

An Intelligent Mail barcode is the USPS-developed barcode that mailers use to encode routing and tracking information on mail that can be read by automated mail processing equipment to sort mail and to provide tracking information to the mailers. An Intelligent Mail barcode consists of 65 vertical bars, each representing one of four possible states: full bar, ascender, tracker, and descender. These 65 bars encode a string of 31 digits, divided into two parts: a 20-digit tracking code and an 11-digit routing code (when required). The 11-digit routing code may contain a ZIP Code, a ZIP+4 Code, or a delivery point code, unless required to contain a certain level of code in specific applications; no correction digit is needed within an Intelligent Mail barcode. Mailers may use Intelligent Mail barcodes as follows:

- a. When used on letters for automation-rate eligibility purposes, the routing code must contain a delivery point code that accurately matches the delivery address.
- b. When used on flat-size pieces for automation-rate eligibility purposes, the barcode must contain either a ZIP+4 or a delivery point routing code that accurately matches the delivery address. When flat-size pieces bear an Intelligent Mail barcode for automation rate eligibility, the barcode on a piece that contains an optional endorsement line (OEL) must contain OEL coding that includes information in exhibit 708.7.1.1 corresponding to the correct sortation level of each bundle. The OEL information in the Intelligent Mail barcode is required in addition to a physical OEL. See the Intelligent Mail Barcode Resource Guide available at <http://ribbs.usps.gov/OneCodeSOLUTION> for more information on incorporating OELs in Intelligent Mail barcodes.
- c. Mailers must incorporate the Business Entity Identifier (BEI) code in the Customer Identifier field. To obtain a BEI, OneCode ACS subscribers can contact the ACS department at the National Customer Support Center at 1-800-331-5746. Confirm subscribers approved for OneCode Confirm must incorporate their Confirm Subscriber ID (which is their BEI) when using Intelligent Mail barcodes. OneCode Confirm subscribers can contact Confirm Customer Assistance at 1-800-238-3150 or refer to Publication 197 for specific instructions. Mailers printing the Intelligent Mail barcode solely for automation rate eligibility can contact the PostalOne! Help Desk at 1-800-522-9085 to obtain a BEI.

* * * * *

7.0 Optional Endorsement Lines (OELs)

7.1 OEL Use

7.1.1 Basic Standards

[Revise 7.1.1 to require an imbedded OEL on flats when an Intelligent Mail barcode is used for automation rate eligibility as follows:]

An optional endorsement line (OEL) may be used to label bundles instead of applying pressure-sensitive bundle labels or facing slips to the top piece of bundles. The OEL must show carrier route information or the type of bundle and ZIP Code information as shown in Exhibit 7.1.1, OEL Formats. Use of OELs on bundles is subject to the standards for the rate claimed. At the mailer's option, pieces in trays of noncarrier route automation letter-size mail may bear OEL information that corresponds to the sortation level of the tray in which the pieces are placed. The ZIP Code for use on OELs must include the 3-digit ZIP Code prefix or 5-digit ZIP Code as required. OELs are required under the following conditions:

- a. OELs are required with 5-digit scheme and 3-digit scheme bundles.
- b. When flat-size pieces bear an Intelligent Mail barcode (under 708.4.3) for automation-rate eligibility purposes, the barcode on a piece that contains an optional endorsement line (OEL) must contain OEL coding that includes information in exhibit 708.7.1.1 corresponding to the correct sortation level of each bundle. The OEL information in the Intelligent Mail barcode is required in addition to a physical OEL. See the Intelligent Mail Barcode Resource Guide available at <http://ribbs.usps.gov/OneCodeSOLUTION> for more information on incorporating OELs in Intelligent Mail barcodes.

We will incorporate this revision into the next printed version of the DMM and into the monthly update of the online DMM available via Postal Explorer® at <http://pe.usps.com>.

512.232 Service of an Employee Eligible for Military Retirement Annuity

The following military service is used in computing the years of service that determine the annual leave category:

[Revise 512.232a as follows:]

- a. Full Credit. Full leave accrual credit for all active military service is granted if a military retiree meets one of the following four conditions:

* * * * *

[Add 512.232a(4) as follows:]

- (4) The individual first becomes eligible for a uniformed services annuity while serving as a career employee. This provision applies to members of the Reserve Component of the Armed Forces (Reserves and National Guard) who (a) qualify for an annuity because of reserve service or (b) are involuntarily recalled to active duty under Title 10, qualify for uniformed services retirement during that period of active duty, and then are restored to federal civilian employment on completion of that period of involuntary military service. This provision applies only to the employee's current period of civilian employment; if the employee separates and is reemployed later, the provision is no longer applicable.

* * * * *

- b. Partial Credit. Military retirees who do not qualify for full leave accrual credit can qualify for partial credit based on the following:

* * * * *

- (2) Service in a nonwartime campaign or expedition does not entitle the military retiree to credit for the duration of the campaign or expedition but only for the period of service in the campaign or expedition.

[Revise the note in 512.232b(2) as follows:]

Note: Exhibit 512.232 provides data about wars, campaigns, and expeditions for which campaign badges were authorized.

- c. Verification. Military service should be verified:

* * * * *

[Revise 512.232c(3) and (4) as follows:]

- (3) Military Records Center. Addresses and other data necessary to verify service are provided in SF180, Request Pertaining to Military Records, found at the following Web site: <http://www.archives.gov/research/order/standard-form-180.pdf>.

- (4) Campaign or Expeditionary Service. Verify by sending a completed SF 813, Verification of a Military Retiree's Service in Nonwartime Campaigns or Expeditions, to the appropriate military records center. SF 813 can be found at the following Web site: http://www.opm.gov/forms/pdf_fill/SF813.pdf.

1. "Wars" include only those armed conflicts for which a declaration of war was issued by Congress. The Title 38, U.S.C., definition of "war," which is used in determining benefits administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs, includes the Vietnam Era and other armed conflicts. That Title 38 definition is not applicable for purposes of granting partial leave credit to military retirees.
2. July 2, 1921, is the date of a Joint Resolution of the U.S. Congress that terminated the war with Germany and Austria-Hungary.
3. The effective date of the Treaty of Peace with Japan that officially terminated World War II.
4. Ongoing campaign or operation through August 2000.

Expiration of Local Stamp Consignment Agreements

Effective April 28, 2007, Post Offices™ and postal retail units will no longer use account identifier code (AIC) 095, Stamps on Consignment Replenishment Sales, to report stamps on consignment sales. AIC 095 will be deactivated and placed on reserve list to assist offices with the closure of stamp accountabilities after many of the local consignment agreements expire. The expiration of local stamp consignment agreements was authorized by Headquarters Corporate Supply Management with a memo dated December 2, 2004, with the subject of Rescission of Delegation of Authority — Local Stamp Consignment Agreements.

Legally Terminating Agreements

1. Post Offices and postal retail units must not attempt to close any remaining local agreements. Post Offices and postal retail units must notify the Stamps on Consignment Program Office via e-mail (Stamps on Consignment program) of any remaining local stamp consignment agreements.
2. The Stamps on Consignment Program Office will provide local Post Offices and postal retail units with directions and additional communication on what procedures will be taken to notify the consignee of the legal closure of the local Stamps on Consignment agreement.

Closing Out Stamp Credits

Once the legal termination process has been completed and the Post Office and postal retail units have received any funds for any outstanding amount and/or return of unused stamps, the unit must close all stamp credit accountabilities related to these Stamps on Consignment. To properly close out these Stamps on Consignment stamp credits, each individual office must determine how these stamp credits are accounted for at their units. These may be accounted for as part of the unit reserve stamp stock or as an individual credit.

Unit Reserve Stock Consignment

For consignments that are accounted for as part of the unit reserve stock, upon receipt of funds and/or unused stamps, the unit reserve custodian must do the following:

1. Ensure the amount matches the pending amount in the agreement.
2. Physically include the stamps as part of the unit reserve stock.
3. If funds are received, issue funds to a retail associate as a stamp requisition using PS Form 17, Stamp Requisition/Stamp Return:
 - a. The retail associate will enter the amount on their PS Form 1412, Daily Financial Report, into AIC 841, Stamp Stock Received.
 - b. Enter the amount into AIC 090, Postage Stock Sales.
 - c. Remit the amount as a bank deposit.

Individual Credit Consignment

For consignments that are accounted for as an individual credit, the supervisor, upon receipt of funds and/or unused stamps, must do the following:

1. Ensure that the amount matches the pending amount in the agreement.
2. Enter the amount of the funds received in the individual credit PS Form 1412 into AIC 090, Postage Stock Sales.
3. Remit the amount as bank deposit.
4. Enter the stamp portion in the individual credit PS Form 1412 into AIC 848, Stamp Stock Returned.
5. Return stamps to the unit reserve custodian.
6. Ensure that the closing balance for the individual credit accountability (AIC 853) is zero.
7. Perform a final PS Form 1412 for this individual credit.

New Offset AICs for Retail Floor Stock and Vending Overages or Shortages at POS ONE Offices

Effective March 1, 2007, new account identifier codes (AICs) have been created as offset accounts to overages or shortages recorded for retail floor stock credits and vending stock credits. After the new POS ONE System Software Release 26.0 is downloaded to POS ONE at your unit, retail floor stock and vending stock credit overages or shortages will no longer offset to postage sales.

When posting retail floor stock counts and vending stock credit counts in POS ONE, the results of the count will post to the appropriate overage or shortage AIC account. Subsequently, POS will automatically offset the overage to the corresponding new assigned AIC or the shortage to the corresponding new assigned AIC. These new assigned AICs will adjust stamp stock credit accountability to the amount as counted.

The following are the assigned AICs:

- AIC 699, SIA, Vending, and APC Stock Overage Offset.
- AIC 843, Stock Adjustment Overage.
- AIC 299, SIA, Vending, and APC Stock Shortage Offset.
- AIC 849, Stock Adjustment Shortage.

Retail Floor Stock count posted in POS

Overages will continue to be reported in AIC 239, Retail Floor Stock Overage, and will automatically offset to the following AICs:

- AIC 699, SIA, Vending, and APC Stock Overage Offset.
- AIC 843, Stock Adjustment Overage.

This will adjust the vending stock credit accountability to the amount as counted.

Shortages will continue to be reported in AIC 639, Retail Floor Stock Shortages, and will automatically offset to the following AICs:

- AIC 299, SIA, Vending, and APC Stock Shortage Offset.
- AIC 849, Stock Adjustment Shortage.

This will adjust the vending stock credit accountability to the amount as counted.

Vending Stock count posted in POS

Overages will continue to be reported in AIC 175, Vending Machine Overage, and will automatically offset to the following AICs:

- AIC 699, SIA, Vending, and APC Stock Overage Offset.
- AIC 843, Stock Adjustment Overage.

This will adjust the vending stock credit accountability to the amount as counted.

Shortage will continue to be reported in AIC 612, Vending Machine Shortage, and will automatically offset to the following AICs:

- AIC 299, SIA, Vending, and APC Stock Shortage Offset.
- AIC 849, Stock Adjustment Shortage.

This will adjust the vending stock credit accountability to the amount as counted.

The table below provides a summary of the new AICs.

Managing Employee Items in POS ONE System Offices

Upon installation of new software Release 26.0 for the (point-of-service) POS ONE system during March and April 2007, POS ONE Post Offices™ and postal retail units will no longer be required to maintain a manual record of unresolved employee items. New functionality in the POS ONE system allows for each unit to maintain and manage financial items that employees are accountable for and that must be cleared or settled at the local unit level. The following account identifier codes (AICs) are employee items:

- AIC 754, Emergency Salary Issued.
- AIC 755, Emergency Travel Advance Issued.
- AIC 068, Employee Cash Overage.
- AIC 764, Employee Cash Shortage.
- AIC 057, Employee Stamp Credit Overage.
- AIC 767, Employee Stamp Credit Shortage.

Whenever an employee item is created or established at the Post Office or postal retail unit, a reference number is automatically assigned to each individual employee item and the employee item is maintained in the Unresolved Employee Items module in the POS ONE system with the assigned reference number. A receipt with the reference number and amount of employee item is issued to the employee, owner of the employee item, which allows for the employee to clear or resolve the employee item.

Consequently, when an employee item is to be cleared or resolved, the employee will use the reference number.

If the reference number is not available, then the unit supervisor can search and provide the reference number so the employee can clear the full amount or partial amount of the unresolved employee item. If full amount is paid, the employee item will be removed from the Unresolved Employee Items module. If partial amount is paid, the balance amount will remain as pending in the Unresolved Employee Items module, until completely cleared.

The Unresolved Employee Items module in POS ONE will maintain the details of all pending employee items to be resolved by the unit. It is the responsibility of the postmaster, manager, or supervisor to pursue collection of employee debt and clear unresolved employee items on a timely basis while adhering to the National Agreement; Employee and Labor Relations Manual (ELM) 450, Collection of Postal Debts from Non-bargaining Unit Employees; ELM 460, Collection of Postal Debts from Bargaining Unit Employees; and the Debt Collection Act.

The unit supervisor must reconcile the amounts in the unresolved employee items with the Customer Trust and Employee Items in the weekly Narrowcaster report, which has the employee items balance.

Safety Awareness Reminder: No Digital Driving Allowed

Driving is not the time for multitasking. Keep your eyes on the road — not your BlackBerry device!

BlackBerry and other wireless devices — including cell phones and scanners — are integral tools in our day-to-day business. But electronic devices and driving don't mix. Using these tools behind the wheel can be illegal and dangerous, and you and the Postal Service™ could be liable for any damages that occur as a result of your distracted driving while on the job.

Postal Service policy requires employees to drive professionally and responsibly and to obey local and state traffic laws. It also specifically prohibits fingering and holding mail while driving (Handbook EL-814, Postal Employee's Guide to Safety, August 2006) and using cell phones while driving (Handbook EL-801, Supervisor's Safety Handbook, April 2006).

Don't endanger yourself, your family, your employer, or those around you by allowing yourself to be distracted by phones, mail, BlackBerry devices, scanners, or anything else.

Take the time to pull over or wait to answer that beep or ring tone until you reach your destination.

(The purpose of this article is to promote personal safety—on and off the job. It is not to be construed as Postal Service policy.)

Do Not Cash — Upon Receipt, Notify Local Postal Inspectors

This listing will be provided to all Postal Service™ employees responsible for accepting and cashing postal money orders. Destroy any interim notices when the numbers listed appear in the Postal Bulletin. The new money order serial numbers consist of the first 9 digits. The 10th digit is a check digit only.

Do not cash new style money orders 000 000 001 to 692 600 000. Advise holders to send invalid money orders to: Canada Post Corporation, Ottawa, Canada K1A 0B1. Check for altered dollar amounts by holding money orders to the light.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <http://www.usps.com/missingmoneyorders/security.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Overseas Military Mail

Mail addressed to military post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the integrated retail terminal (IRT) or POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Acceptance clerks may contact the Military Postal Service Agency with any questions regarding APO/FPO ZIP Codes, toll free, at 800-810-6098, Monday–Friday, 0730–1600 ET.

For Express Mail Military Service (EMMS) availability, all acceptance clerks must refer to the local hardcopy EMMS directory.

Incorrectly Addressed APO/FPO Mail

All acceptance personnel are reminded that mail addressed to an APO or FPO address should not list the country name.

APO/FPO mail is destined to the military post office. However, an address that includes a country name is sent to the international post office, which is not the correct destination.

Below are examples of correct and incorrect addressing:

Correct	Incorrect
Sgt. Smith 23rd Battalion Unit 2340, Box 132 APO AE 09350	Sgt. Smith 23rd Battalion Unit 2340, Box 132 APO AE 09350 Iraq

When accepting incorrectly addressed mail from a mailer, the retail associate should have the mailer obliterate the country name. If the mailer is not available, the retail associate should obliterate the country name.

Stamp Announcement 07-05: Forever Stamp (Liberty Bell)

The Postal Service™ will issue a nondenominated First-Class Mail® definitive, Forever Stamp (Liberty Bell) on April 12, 2007, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The stamp, designed by Carl T. Herrman of Carlsbad, California, also goes on sale nationwide April 12, 2007.

The value of the Forever Stamp (Liberty Bell) will always be the First-Class Mail single-piece 1-ounce letter rate that is in effect on the day of use (mailing), unaffected by any future rate changes.

The stamp depicts the Liberty Bell, which is perhaps the most prominent and recognizable symbol associated with American independence. Over the years, the historic significance of the bell's message has transcended our national borders, and today the Liberty Bell is an international icon of freedom.

The stamp art features a computer-generated image of the Liberty Bell by nationally acclaimed artist Tom Engeman of Brunswick, Maryland.

The stamp will be issued in the following nondenominated formats:

- Pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) automated teller machine (ATM) sheetlet of 18 (Item 569900).
- PSA vending booklet of 20 (Item 676500).
- PSA double-sided booklet of 20 (Item 676600).

Stamp Announcement 07-06: American Flag (2007) Stamp

The Postal Service™ will issue a nondenominated definitive, American Flag (2007) stamp on April 12, 2007, in Washington, DC. The stamp, designed by Richard Sheaff of Scottsdale, Arizona, also goes on sale nationwide on April 12, 2007.

A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. If available, the sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of those postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: PICTORIAL POSTMARKS, followed by the NAME OF THE STATION, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP+4® CODE, exactly as listed below (using all capitals and no punctuation, except the hyphen in the ZIP+4 code).

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

The following pictorial postmark has been extended for 30 days:

How To Order the First Day of Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first day of issue postmark by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, and at The Postal Store® Web site at www.usps.com/shop.

Customers may submit #6 or #10 covers constructed of paper rated as “laser safe.” The Postal Service™ recommends 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free envelopes, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. There is a minimum of 10 covers at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. You may submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. Two test envelopes must be included. For covers with graphics or lettering, please note the maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. The Postal Service reserves the right not to accept hand painted and other cachets that are not compatible with our digital color postmark. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of non-specified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

After applying the first day of issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes through the mail. There is no charge for the postmark. All orders must be postmarked within 60 days of the first day of issue date.

They should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address the envelopes (to themselves or others), and place them in a larger envelope addressed to the following address:

U.S. Stamp & Sign Is Our Authorized Business Card Supplier

For complete ordering instructions, please refer to Material Logistics Bulletin No. MLB-CO-06-011. You can access the bulletin on the intranet at http://blue.usps.gov/purchase/_doc/ops_mlb06-011.doc.

You may order stamps online at www.stamptheworld.com, which was co-designed with the Postal Service and is also compliant with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act (29 U.S.C. 794d).

Custodial Products' "No-Touch" Cleaning System

"No-touch" cleaning systems are now available through the Postal Service's™ national custodial products contracts with W. W. Grainger and Cleanwise. The "no-touch" system is an automated cleaning machine that uses specially formulated chemicals, which allow operators to clean tile and concrete surfaces in restrooms, locker rooms, break rooms, and cafeterias without touching contaminated surfaces.

Use the following information to order "no-touch" cleaning systems:

Supplier	Product	eBuy Catalog/Item Number	Telephone Number
W. W. Grainger	Kaivac Machine	PSI 300, Item #2NV13	800-468-8326
	Kaizen Machine	PSI 300, Item #2NV15
Cleanwise	Tennant Model 750 All Surface Cleaner	Item # 38888.	877-778-8067

Both suppliers provide product information and training to Postal Service employees on equipment setup, operation, daily maintenance, and equipment storage requirements for these "no-touch" cleaning systems.

Direct questions about the Grainger and Cleanwise custodial products' contracts to Mary Ballard, contracting officer for these contracts, at 214-819-7110.

Custodial and Maintenance, Repair, and Operations Contracts Product Return Policy

Returning products to suppliers is costly to the Postal Service™ and to our suppliers. Postal Service employees must always be aware of the additional costs involved in ordering the wrong product, returning the product to the supplier, and re-ordering the correct product.

To eliminate these costs, Postal Service facilities unsure of a product's function, capabilities, or applications should contact W. W. Grainger at 800-468-8326; MSC Industrial Supply at 800-672-4468; or Cleanwise at 877-778-8067 for verification. These suppliers accept product returns and provide credits to the end user even for errors that are not the direct result of their internal order fulfillment processes. Because of our suppliers' commitment to provide best overall value to the Postal Service, they also absorb all restocking charges.

If a supplier's order fulfillment process, catalog descriptions, or delivery methods result in product ordering errors and product returns, contact Mary Ballard, contracting officer for custodial products at 214-819-7109, or Vicki Kokoruda, contracting officer for maintenance, repair, and operations products at 214-819-7102.

Let's be good business partners. If you have a problem with a product, contact your supplier and process all returns no later than 30 days after receipt of the product.
