Beat the Heat, Stay Cool

It's that time of year again, when the temperatures begin to rise, and the potential for heat-related illnesses becomes a factor during your daily work routine.

Here are some quick tips for battling the heat:

1. Hydrate before, during, and after work. Prevention is important, so make sure to maintain good hydration by drinking at least 8 ounces of water every 20 minutes.
2. Dress appropriately for the weather. On warm days, make sure to wear light colored, loose-fitting, breathable clothing to keep body temperatures down.
3. Utilize shade to stay cool. When possible, use shaded areas to stay out of direct sunlight.
4. Know the signs of heat stress. You should understand what heat stress is, and how it can affect your health and safety. Here are some things to look out for:

- Hot, dry skin or profuse sweating.
- Headache.
- Confusion or dizziness.
- Nausea.
- Muscle cramps.
- Weakness or fatigue.
- Rash.

Finally, it's important to notify your supervisor or call 911 if you're experiencing signs of heat-related illness. This will not only ensure your safety, but can also save your life.

Sample Speech

Remarks Prepared for [Postal Official]
Special Olympics: World Games Stamp Special Dedication Ceremony
[Location]
[City, State]
[Date, Time]

Good [morning/afternoon], everyone! And thank you for that kind introduction. [Or if not introduced, use the following self-intro.]

I'm [Name and Title] and I'm very happy to be here today for this special event.

It's a tremendous honor to be here with all of you, and to pay tribute to [Name] who [will be competing/competed] in the Special Olympics World Games.

[Name] has worked so hard — and come so far — just to get here, so I would like to extend my sincere congratulations to [Him/Her]. [Turn and speak directly to honoree:] [Name], your achievements make us all proud that you're from [Name Of Community/City] and we wish you the best of luck as you [compete in/return from] the Special Olympics World Games.

[Provide background on the athlete being recognized here.]

One of the privileges of my job in the United States Postal Service is to take part in ceremonies like these, and through our stamp program, to help shine a spotlight on important causes.

Today, the Postal Service is pleased to honor Special Olympics, an organization that — for five decades — has changed the world by creating opportunities for children and adults with intellectual challenges.

In doing so, we also honor Special Olympics founder Eunice Kennedy Shriver, whose inspiration, leadership, and determination is, was, and always will be an essential part of what has become the world's largest, and fastest-growing sports organization.

Not bad for what began as a summer day camp in Mrs. Shriver's own backyard!

With nearly 5 (five) million athletes in more than 170 ("one hundred seventy") countries, Special Olympics is uniting the world in friendship, courage, and respect. The Forever stamp that we present today serves as a tribute to this marvelous organization and the remarkable woman who started it all.

The new stamp features the 2015 Special Olympics World Games Los Angeles logo and showcases the colors of the flags from participating countries.

The words "Special Olympics World Games Los Angeles 2015" and "Forever/USA" also appear on the stamp.

And remember: These are Forever stamps, so they'll always be good for First-Class Mail, even if postage rates change.

It's a wonderful stamp, and we would like all of you to make the most of them by buying them, using them, and collecting them.

And most of all, we would love to see these new stamps displayed prominently on cards and letters!

What better way to show your support for Special Olympics USA than by using these new stamps on letters of encouragement to our athletes?

This past March, the Postal Service spearheaded a letter writing campaign to support the team before, during, and after the World Summer games, which [will take/took place] place in Los Angeles from July 25th through August 2nd.

Since then, we've been collecting thousands of letters from school children, families, and other members of the American public to our country's athletes.

[Optional]

I've brought some of these letters here with me today, and I'd like to share a few of them with you:

[Read excerpts from letters addressed to athlete being recognized.]

With letters of support like that, the team can't help but succeed in Los Angeles! [or:]: With letters of support like that, it's not surprising that [Name] performed so well at the Games.

The new Special Olympics World Games stamps are perfect to use on your letters to the Special Olympics USA National Team — and all of your mail and packages.

And let them serve as a reminder that when we are given the chance, we can do extraordinary things.

So now, on behalf of the United States Postal Service, I would like to invite our special guests to join me as we present our Special Olympics World Games Forever stamp.

[Unveil stamp. Pose for photos.]

Publicity Kit: United States Coast Guard Stamp

The Postal Service™ celebrates the 225th anniversary of the United States Coast Guard by dedicating the United States Coast Guard Forever® stamp on August 4, 2015, at U.S. Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington, DC.

This Forever stamp honors the U.S. Coast Guard for its role in protecting the security of the nation and advancing vital maritime interests. In an oil painting on masonite, renowned aviation artist William S. Phillips of Ashland, OR, depicts two icons of the Coast Guard: the cutter Eagle, a three-masted sailing ship often called “America’s Tall Ship,” and an MH-65 Dolphin helicopter, the service’s standard rescue aircraft. Art director Phil Jordan of Falls Church, VA, designed the stamp.

Postmasters are encouraged to salute the U.S. Coast Guard through special dedication ceremonies among nearly 300 Coast Guard units nationwide that are located along coastal and inland waterways.

Possible Special Dedication Ceremony Scenarios

- Have a Coast Guard official provide background on the history and function of the U.S. Coast Guard Station where the event is taking place along with its role in significant events.
- Invite individuals rescued by the U.S. Coast Guard to share their stories and provide thanks to their rescuers.
- If possible, ask the U.S. Coast Guard to conduct rescue drills, safe boating demonstrations, etc.

This publicity kit contains everything needed to conduct a successful event:

- U.S. Coast Guard unit locations;
- U.S. Coast Guard history;
- Sample media advisory;
- Sample news release;

- Sample speech;
- Corporate Communications field manager listing for assistance in publicizing local events; and
- Government Relations contacts listing for inviting elected officials.

If you need assistance in reaching out to your local Coast Guard unit, please email Mark Saunders at mark.r.saunders@usps.gov. To expedite the process, please include the name and location of the Coast Guard unit as well as any ideas or suggestions on the type of event you would like to conduct.

Additionally, the Coast Guard recommends reaching out to contacts with the Coast Guard City program which recognizes municipalities or counties that show extraordinary support to their local Coast Guard units. The program encourages other cities to develop similar programs and activities that support Coast Guard service members in their community. The program also raises the visibility of the Coast Guard and its missions.

Coast Guard History

The U.S. Coast Guard traces its history to a law enacted in August 1790 by President George Washington, at the urging of Alexander Hamilton. The law provided for a fleet of 10 vessels, or “revenue cutters,” to aid in the collecting of duties on goods imported into the United States. This small fleet — given the big task of guarding the Atlantic coast and thwarting smugglers and pirates trying to evade tariff restrictions — was the genesis of what eventually became the Revenue Cutter Service, forerunner of today’s Coast Guard.

The responsibilities of the fleet increased in its first combat operation during the undeclared naval war of 1798–1800 with France, when Congress instructed it to cooperate with the U.S. Navy at the President’s discretion. Prior to this time, since there was no Navy, the cutters served as the nation’s only armed force afloat. Ever since then, the Coast Guard has played a supportive role in the country’s defense during times of war.

The Coast Guard received its current name in 1915, when President Woodrow Wilson signed into law the “Act to Create the Coast Guard.” This legislation combined the Revenue Cutter Service and the Life-Saving Service, which had been established as a separate agency in 1878, into one organization. The 1915 legislation also made explicit that the Coast Guard was “a part of the military forces of the United States” and would “operate as a part of the Navy. . . in time of war or when the President shall so direct.”

The Coast Guard later absorbed other long-standing maritime agencies, most notably the U.S. Lighthouse Service in 1939 and the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation (comprising the earlier Steamboat Inspection Service and the Bureau of Navigation) in 1942.

The search-and-rescue mission of the Coast Guard is perhaps the one most familiar to the public today. This mission took root during the 19th century, when the government directed revenue cutters to search for vessels and persons in distress at sea. In this often hazardous enterprise, the helicopter became a valuable aid soon after its introduction in the 1940s. Two events in the 1950s demonstrated the unique capabilities of this new flying machine: In 1955, Coast Guard helicopters rescued scores of Connecticut residents from floodwaters caused by two late-summer hurricanes, and on Christmas Eve of that year a single helicopter rescued 138 victims of a massive flood in northern California. Not long after these dramatic incidents, helicopters joined cutters as icons of the Coast Guard.

Hurricane Katrina

One of the largest response-and-rescue efforts in the history of the Coast Guard took place in 2005 after Hurricane Katrina slammed the Gulf Coast. As the city of New Orleans was deluged by 20-foot high floodwaters, tens of thousands of residents were left clinging to rooftops or huddling in attics. Some 5,000 members of the Coast Guard, including units from across the nation, rushed to the scene, and a large percentage of the Coast Guard helicopter fleet deployed.

The effort was complicated by the unusual challenges of urban search and rescue, including downed wires that posed a hazard to helicopter rotor blades. Some rescue swimmers had to borrow fire axes to cut through rooftops to reach people trapped in attics. At one point, Coast Guard personnel were rescuing 750 people an hour by boat and 100 people an hour by air. The final tally of persons rescued and evacuated from rooftops, flooded homes, and stricken hospitals exceeded 33,000.

The Coast Guard's incredibly successful response to Katrina was a testament to its culture of service and exemplified its longtime motto, "Semper Paratus — Always Ready."

The Coast Guard today has more than 49,000 active-duty men and women; 7,300 Reservists; 8,300 civilian employees, and 30,000 volunteer auxiliary personnel. In addition to saving lives at sea, their responsibilities include enforcing maritime law, overseeing aids to navigation, carrying out icebreaking operations, protecting the marine environment, responding to oil spills and water pollution, ensuring port security, supporting scientific research at sea, combating terrorism, and aiding in the nation's defense.

During an average day, Coast Guard personnel assist more than 300 people in distress, save more than $2 million in property, board 90 large vessels for port safety checks, conduct 120 law enforcement boardings, and investigate more than a dozen marine accidents.

Renowned aviation artist William Phillips of Ashland, OR, depicts in an oil painting on Masonite, two icons of the Coast Guard: the cutter, Eagle, a three-masted sailing ship known as "America's Tall Ship," and an MH-65 Dolphin helicopter, the standard rescue aircraft of the Coast Guard. Phil Jordan of Falls Church, VA, was the art director for the stamp.

The U.S. Coast Guard is a multi-mission agency that during an average day, assists more than 300 people in distress, saves more than $2 million in property, boards 90 vessels for port safety checks, conducts 120 law enforcement boardings, and investigates more than a dozen marine accidents.

The U.S. Coast Guard today has more than 49,000 active-duty men and women; 7,300 Reservists; 8,300 civilian employees, and 30,000 volunteer auxiliary personnel. In addition to saving lives at sea, members of the Coast Guard enforce maritime law, oversee aids to navigation, conduct icebreaking operations, protect the marine environment, respond to oil spills and water pollution, ensure port security, support scientific research at sea, combat terrorism, and aid in the nation's defense.

U.S. Coast Guard History

The U.S. Coast Guard traces its history to August 1790 and a law signed by President George Washington. The law provided for a fleet of 10 vessels, or "revenue cutters," to aid in collecting duties on goods imported into the United States. This fleet guarded the Atlantic coast and thwarted smugglers and pirates trying to evade tariffs. It was the genesis of what became the Revenue Cutter Service, forerunner of today's Coast Guard.

The U.S. Coast Guard received its current name in 1915, under President Woodrow Wilson. The Revenue Cutter Service and the Life-Saving Service, which had been established as a separate agency in 1878, were combined into one organization. The 1915 legislation also made explicit that the Coast Guard was "a part of the military forces of the United States" and would "operate as a part of the Navy. . . in time of war or when the President shall so direct."

Nation's Lifeguard

The search-and-rescue mission of the Coast Guard is perhaps the mission most familiar to the public today. The helicopter became a valuable aid in the cause soon after its introduction in the 1940s. In 1955, Coast Guard helicopters rescued scores of Connecticut residents from floodwaters caused by two late-summer hurricanes, and on Christmas Eve of that year a single helicopter rescued 138 victims of a massive flood in northern California. Not long after these dramatic incidents, helicopters joined cutters as icons of the Coast Guard.

Hurricane Katrina

One of the largest response-and-rescue efforts in the history of the Coast Guard took place in 2005 after Hurricane Katrina slammed the Gulf Coast. As the city of New Orleans was deluged by 20-foot high floodwaters, tens of thousands of residents were left clinging to rooftops or huddling in attics. Some 5,000 personnel rushed to the scene, and a large percentage of the Coast Guard helicopter fleet deployed.

The effort was complicated by the challenges of urban search and rescue, including downed wires that posed a hazard to helicopter rotor blades. Some rescue swimmers had to borrow fire axes to cut through rooftops to reach people trapped in their attics. At one point, Coast Guard personnel were rescuing 750 people an hour by boat and 100 people an hour by air. The final tally of persons rescued and evacuated from rooftops, flooded homes, and stricken hospitals exceeded 33,000.

The Coast Guard's incredible response to Katrina was a testament to its culture of service and exemplified its longtime motto, "Semper Paratus — Always Ready."

Text on the Back of the Stamp Sheet (Verso Text)

"Semper Paratus — Always Ready" (Coast Guard motto)

The United States Coast Guard is a multi-mission military service that has helped ensure the safety and prosperity of the nation for 225 years.

The Coast Guard traces its history to 1790, when rampant maritime smuggling was starving the fledgling nation of desperately needed tariff revenue. At the urging of Alexander Hamilton, considered to be the Coast Guard's founder, President George Washington approved the construction of a fleet of 10 boats, or revenue cutters, to serve as an armed customs enforcement service. These cutters and their brave crews were the forerunners of today's Coast Guard.

Today, on America's waterways and oceans, the Coast Guard is the nation's first responder. In addition to saving lives at sea, the Coast Guard enforces maritime law, maintains shipping lanes, breaks ice, protects the marine environment, responds to oil spills and water pollution, ensures port security, and combats terrorism. In times of emergency, the Coast Guard is ready for action, working with maritime law enforcement and military partners. The Coast Guard has served alongside the other armed forces in nearly every armed conflict in the nation's history.

From across the nation and every walk of life, through basic training at Cape May, NJ, or the Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT, service members embody the Coast Guard's core values of honor, respect and devotion to duty.

United States Postal Service
United States Coast Guard Forever Stamp
Special Dedication Stock Speech
August 2015
[Not to be used prior to August 4, 2015]

Thank you for your kind introduction!

[Or if no introduction is given:]

Good [morning/afternoon/evening.] I'm [Name and Title] from the United States Postal Service.

It's a pleasure to be with you today to help celebrate the 225-year history of the United States Coast Guard!

We at the Postal Service are long-time supporters and admirers of the Coast Guard and its magnificent record of service to Americans. In fact, today's event is the latest in a series of special commendations honoring the Coast Guard over the years.

In 1945, we issued a stamp saluting the Coast Guard's accomplishments in World War II. We also issued a commemorative Coast Guard postal card in 1965.

And, this isn't the first time we've celebrated a significant Coast Guard anniversary. In 1990, our Lighthouses booklet of stamps honored the service's 200th anniversary. The booklet cover highlighted the Coast Guard insignia and proudly read, "200 years." One of the stamps inside showed a Coast Guard cutter in the foreground.

In 1997, the women of the Coast Guard and their counterparts in the other armed services were all honored with a new stamp.

And in 2013, we released the New England Coastal Lighthouses Forever stamps. The set includes a stamp depicting the famous Boston Light — by law, the only lighthouse still fully manned by the Coast Guard.

Also in 2013, we honored members of the armed services awarded the Medal of Honor for their valiant and heroic service in World War II. Among the 464 recipients we listed on the stamp sheet was Coast Guard Signallerman First Class Douglas A. Munro. He died heroically in Guadalcanal while navigating his landing craft to rescue a detachment of Marines pinned down by enemy fire.

So our relationship with the Coast Guard is enduring, based on the gratitude, pride, and admiration of all Americans for the work it performs each day. That's why this event — and the stamp we are issuing — is so special.

Like most of our commemorative stamps, this is a Forever stamp, which means its value will always equal the current price to mail a one-ounce First-Class Mail letter.

The artwork on the stamp depicts a Coast Guard helicopter and the Eagle, the service's magnificent, square-rigged, tall ship. It's a reminder that the Coast Guard — like the Postal Service — has its roots in the very early years of this country's history and today remains vital to the nation's welfare.

Today's Coast Guard has a multi-faceted mission. In addition to saving lives at sea, it enforces maritime law, and provides aid to navigation, protection of the marine environment, and icebreaking operations. The Coast Guard also responds to environmental threats, and supports port security and scientific research at sea, while combating terrorism and aiding in the nation's defense.

To put this mission in a more human perspective, on a typical workday, Coast Guard personnel:

- Assist more than 300 people in distress;
- Save more than $2 million in property;

- Board 90 large vessels for port safety checks;
- Conduct 120 law enforcement boardings; and
- Investigate more than a dozen marine accidents.

The work of the Coast Guard in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina is just one example. When the devastating storm slammed the Gulf Coast in 2005, more than 5,000 Coast Guard servicemen and women helped rescue residents whose homes and neighborhoods had been flooded or were destroyed.

People everywhere watched in awe as televised images of Coast Guard personnel rescuing as many as 750 people per hour flashed around the world. Rescues included dramatic helicopter interventions as well as units in small boats navigating flooded streets to rescue stranded victims.

All told, the Coast Guard rescued more than 33,000 victims of Katrina — a testament to the culture of service and commitment evidenced in its motto, “Semper Paratus,” (pronounced SEM-pur Par-AH-tus) which means: “Always Ready.”

Not all the Coast Guard’s dramatic achievements receive this much attention. Many times, Coast Guard servicemen and women brave savage storms or troubled waters far from public view to assist people in need.

But the gratitude for assistance — often delivered at great risk to the Coast Guard personnel involved — is no less heartfelt from those who benefit from it.

That’s why I’m pleased to introduce you to [Name] from our local Coast Guard unit [Name of Coast Guard Unit] who performed heroically by coming to the assistance of citizens in danger.

[Insert description of event, ask U.S. Coast Guard Personnel and, if present, the people they assisted to stand and be recognized.]

[Applause]

As the commercial and security needs of our nation continue to grow, the Coast Guard’s mission is expanding.

At the Postal Service, we have no doubt the Coast Guard is up to future challenges. It’s evident in the professionalism and dedication of its personnel.

And it’s clear in the heroic ways Coast Guard personnel such as [Name(s) OF USCG Personnel Present] perform their duties.

With today’s dedication of the United States Coast Guard Forever Stamp, the men and women of the Postal Service salute the Coast Guard for its more than two centuries of contributions to the nation’s welfare. We look forward to working with the men and women of this remarkable service for another 225 years.

Thank you.

Customers must substantiate that the postage affixed was valid and sufficient for the postage and applicable fees owed. An electronic notification will be sent to the customer of the decision to uphold or deny the dispute along with a brief rationale. The USPS reserves the authority to make the final decision on all disputes.

Invalid USPS Corporate Account Numbers

This listing should be provided to Contract Postal Units and used by acceptance clerks in non-POS locations without intranet access to validate a USPS Corporate Account (USPSCA) number online. For all other locations, online USPSCA validation is preferred. The online validation process is outlined in the USPSCA Validation SOP on the Retail webpage. This list supersedes all previous notices, which must be recycled. Acceptance clerks must not accept Priority Mail Express™ shipments bearing an invalid USPSCA number in the “Payment by Account” or “Agreement Number” section of the label or form.

Note: The first 6 digits of a 9-digit Custom Designed Service and Next Day Pickup Agreement make up the Corporate Account Number.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <https://www.usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Inquiries may be sent to the Military Postal Service Agency at <https://amps.usps.gov/jy2/frm.htm>.

The entries under “Changes” appear in bold in the APO/FPO/DPO table starting below.

Freely Associated States

Mail addressed to freely associated states is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The FAS table below outlines these conditions as listed by each affected FAS ZIP Code™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions following the table). For additional information on available extra services for FAS destinations, see Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®), part 503.

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the POS ONE terminal to determine which FAS ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Inquiries may be sent to Randall Sobol at randall.f.sobol@usps.gov.

The G Fund is managed internally by the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board. Assets of the F, C, S, and I Funds are managed externally. The Board currently has contracts with BlackRock Institutional Trust Company, N.A., to manage the F, C, S, and I Fund assets. The F, C, S, and I Funds invest in commingled trust funds, in which the assets of tax-deferred employee benefit plans are combined and invested together. The F, C, S, and I Funds and the BlackRock funds are passively managed index funds.

Future performance of the funds will vary and may be significantly different from the returns shown above. See the Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan for detailed information about the funds and their investment risks. The monthly returns of the TSP Funds represent net earnings for the month after deduction of accrued administrative expenses and, except for the G Fund, after deduction of trading costs and accrued investment management fees as well. The returns for the four indexes shown do not include any of these deductions.

* Implemented May 2001.

Fiscal Year 2015 Closing Guidance: Message From the Controller

Thanks to all of you for your efforts to control expenses during FY 2015. It is important that we carry this effort through to the end of the fiscal year by controlling discretionary activity. This does not mean curtailing business, but it does mean making prudent choices by deferring or eliminating noncritical activity, and purchasing goods or services throughout the year, rather than at the end of the fiscal year, simply because there are available budget funds. Please encourage your contractors to bill us in a timely manner for goods received and services rendered, or inform us of any billing delays so we can recognize the expense before the end of the fiscal year.

The following instructions will assist you, when appropriate, in helping the Postal Service™ close its financial books in a timely and efficient manner.

Maura A. McNerney
Vice President, Controller

I. Instructions for Fiscal Year 2015 Closing

All organizations are requested to limit their expenditures to essential spending. Accordingly, all vice presidents should review discretionary spending to ensure the Postal Service attains its financial target for this fiscal year (FY).

The instruction and reporting dates in this Postal Bulletin supplement procedures followed during the normal monthly or quarterly reporting schedule.

II. Fiscal Year

The Postal Service prepares its annual reports on a government FY basis, which comprises 365 days (366 in leap years), always ending on September 30.

III. End of Year Processing Activities and Timelines, Contract Actions, and Requisitions Expense requisitions and requests for contract modifications for FY15 should be submitted to Supply Management before August 31. Requisitions for capital purchases will be accepted by Supply Management through September 11.

Also, organizations should limit capital commitments, particularly for Postal Service support equipment, to essential needs. The schedule for Supply Management processing is as follows:

For requisitions received...	Funds are processed as follows...
On or before August 31, 2015	Supply Management will issue the required contract or modification for Accounting Services, San Mateo to process against FY 2015 funds.
On or after September 1, 2015	Supply Management will issue the required contract or modification for Accounting Services, San Mateo to process against FY 2016 funds.

Requisitions for Contract Actions

FY 2015, Expense and Capital requisitions and requests for contract action should be submitted to Supply Management before August 31 and September 11, 2015, respectively.

Requisitions for IT Hardware, Services, Software, and Telecom (Exception):

For FY 2015, Expense and Capital requisition requests for contract actions should be submitted to Supply Management before August 1, 2015. Any requests received after this date will not be guaranteed for award and delivery by September 30, 2015.

For FY 2015, Expense and Capital requisition requests for contract actions that require a start date before October 1, 2015, should be submitted to Supply Management before August 1, 2015. Any requests received after this date will not be guaranteed for award by September 30, 2015.

Hardcopy paper commitment documents (only applies to Non-CAMS documents) must be forwarded to Accounting Services, San Mateo, no later than Friday, September 18. Electronic files must be transmitted to Accounting Services as follows:

Send electronic files for...	To...	No later than...
Contract Authoring and Management System (CAMS)	San Mateo	September 30, 2015
Facilities capital commitments and expense payments	St. Louis	September 30, 2015

Appropriate receiving reports or certified invoices for goods and services received by September 30 must be received by Accounting Services, San Mateo, no later than Thursday, October 1.

1. Expedite processing of receiving reports and certified invoices, as these documents are used to charge expense to the proper FY.

2. Additionally, review contracts to ensure sufficient funds are available by Friday, August 28 to process invoices.

3. Supply Management will process all requisitions for the issuance of contracts against FY 2015 funds according to the following priorities:

Priority 1 — Capital commitment requisitions.

Priority 2 — Expense commitment requisitions.

IV. Accruals

Year-end closing, FY 2015:

1. There will be no "special" end-of-year accruals for HQ expenses. Monthly accruals for HQ expenses will be processed as normal and as communicated to the Executive Leadership Team (ELT) budget coordinators.

Note: Any unusual/non-monthly expense should be communicated to the ELT as a possible adjustment to the normal ELT accrual.

2. All HQ accruals will be accrued at the ELT finance level.

3. All invoices for San Mateo goods and services received in the month of September must be mailed to San Mateo no later than September 25 for processing by September 30, 2015. All invoices not received by San Mateo by October 1, 2015, will be processed in October 2015, and paid in FY 2016.

Procedures for Handling Unsold Migratory Bird (Duck) Stamps

In March 2011, Handbook F-101, Field Accounting Procedures, was revised to allow unsold (off-sale) Migratory Bird stamps (Duck stamps) to be retained in the unit reserve accountability until their next scheduled return of nonsaleable stock. Only philatelic segments are authorized to maintain inventories of prior-year Migratory Bird stamps for sale to collectors. There is no longer a special destruction cycle for these stamps.

Policy requires Postal Retail Units (PRUs) to return off-sale Migratory Bird stamps to the unit reserve stock by April 30 of each year. PRUs which currently have a supply of 2014–2015 stamps on hand should ensure they are returned to their unit reserve so they are not sold in error. During the regularly scheduled destruction periods, PRUs will prepare and return Migratory Bird stamps to Stamp Fulfillment Services along with all other off-sale items. Revenue and Field Accounting will no longer send an annual reminder of this policy.

Stamp Announcement 15-35: World Stamp Show–NY 2016 Stamps

© 2015 USPS

On August 20, 2015, in Grand Rapids, MI, the U.S. Postal Service® will issue the World Stamp Show–NY 2016, First Class Mail® stamp (Forever® priced at 49 cents), in two designs, in a pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) pane of 20 stamps (Item 589900).

The stamps will go on sale nationwide August 20, 2015.

With these elegant stamps reminiscent of classic engraved 19th-century stamps and banknotes, the U.S. Postal Service® announces the coming World Stamp Show–NY 2016 and invites philatelists and amateur stamp enthusiasts alike to attend. The show will be held May 28 to June 4, 2016, at the Jacob Javits Convention Center in New York City. World Stamp Show–NY 2016 continues a 100-year tradition of once-a-decade international philatelic exhibitions held in the United States. Twenty stamps feature intricate patterns of curved, straight, and wavy lines, and are evenly divided in color: ten blue and ten red stamps. The circle in the center of the stamp design displays a five-pointed star. Text surrounding the circle includes the year of the show, “2016,” and the words “World Stamp Show” and “New York City.” The header on the pane reads: “JOIN US FOR A WONDERFUL WEEK AT WORLD STAMP SHOW–NY 2016.” Verso text provides details about the show. Graphic designer Michael Dyer worked with art director Antonio Alcalá to create the stamp art.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service™ offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail® postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4® Code, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. After applying the pictorial postmark, the Postal Service returns the items (with or without addresses) under addressed protective cover.

How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks

Customers have 60 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® website at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first-day-of-issue city. The first-day-of-issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as "laser safe." The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first-day-of-issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

Supply Management

Recycling of Empty Toner and Inkjet Cartridges

The USPS® BlueEarth™ Federal Recycling Program is the U.S. Postal Service® resource for recycling all empty toner and inkjet cartridges. This saves the Postal Service™ money and retains revenue.

For ALL empty toner and inkjet recycling returns, use the USPS BlueEarth Federal Recycling Program at <http://BlueEarth.usps.gov>.

Do NOT photocopy the labels. A new label must be generated for each shipment. Do not use the UPS label included in the new cartridge box.

Tips for Printing a Return Label:

Printing a return label with USPS BlueEarth takes only a minute — it's quick, easy, and convenient:

1. Enter your information at <http://BlueEarth.usps.gov>.
2. Print the label.

3. Pack cartridge(s) in the box.

4. Mail the package.

If the label does not print, it is generally because the return address does not match what is showing in the Address Management System. To correct, please click on the Look Up a ZIP Code™ link at https://tools.usps.com/go/ZipLookupAction_input.

Contact the Asset Accountability Service Center (AASC) in your Area if additional guidance is needed. Contact information is on the AASC website at http://blue.usps.gov/purchase/assetmgnt/am_aasc_home.htm.
