Background

The Postal Service™ is in the midst of primary season and preparing for the general election in November 2016. In addition to the presidential campaign, there will be high-visibility congressional, gubernatorial, and other state and local races.

With elections comes Election Mail and Political Campaign Mail and proper handling of each is critical.

Concerns have been raised regarding how the change in delivery standards could require additional time for Election Mail, Political Campaign Mail, and ballots to reach voters. The Postal Service takes these concerns very seriously and plans are in place from coast to coast to ensure the timely receipt, processing, and delivery of election and political mail.

Generally, citizens use one of three methods to cast their votes — a traditional polling place via electronic or paper ballot, an absentee paper ballot, or early in-person voting. Although traditional poll voting is still the most popular method, voting by mail is increasing across broad segments of the American electorate. For example, in the 2014 midterm federal election, 25 percent of voters cast ballots by mail — an increase of 3.5 percent over the 2012 presidential election.

Plan Objectives

- Educate and inform the public on proper mail handling, key dates, and general election mail/political mail tips.
- Reinforce message that the Postal Service takes its job of delivering ballots and other election/political mail very seriously.
- Emphasize correct use for Tag 57, Political Campaign Mailing.
- Highlight correct use for Tag 191, Domestic and International Mail-In Ballots, and ensure this mail is correctly identified and promptly processed.
- Build awareness that official Election Mail and Political Campaign Mail are normally related to the same election event, but they are actually two distinct types of mail.
- Assure election officials that ballots will be handled correctly and educate them on the changes related to service standards so they can make changes to their processes in order for ballots to be mailed and returned in time.
- Increase attentiveness among employees that when they encounter official Election Mail or Political Campaign Mail in the mail stream to always handle it promptly and provide it with equal care and attention.

Key Voter Message — Return Ballots

Customers who opt to vote through the U.S. Mail need to familiarize themselves with their local jurisdiction's requirements regarding timely submissions of absentee ballots, including postmarking requirements. Voters should contact their local election officials for questions about local deadlines. The Postal Service recommends mailing ballots early to account for any unforeseen events or weather issues and to allow for timely receipt by election officials.

Key Election Official and Political Mailer Message — Return Ballots

Delivery times vary based on the class of mail, where it's entered, and where it's going. Most mail will be delivered within 5 days. Standard Mail[®] may take longer depending on where the mail is being sent from and delivered to. Election Mail coordinators can provide additional information about standard delivery times.

Whether the decision is to use First-Class Mail[®] or Standard Mail, working closely with local Postal Service election mail coordinators to determine a delivery time for the mailing is strongly encouraged. Contact information for coordinators can be found at <http://www.usps.com/electionmail>.

FAQs

1. What is Election Mail?

Election Mail is any item mailed to or from authorized election officials that enables citizens to participate in the voting process, such as ballot materials, voter registration cards, absentee applications, and polling place notifications.

2. What is Political Mail?

Political Mail is any material mailed at First-Class Mail or Standard Mail prices for political campaign purposes by a registered political candidate, a campaign committee (federal, state, or local), or a committee of a political party (Democratic National Committee, Republican Congressional Campaign Committee).

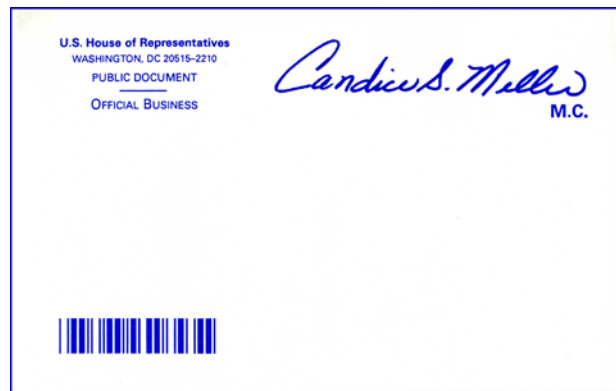

3. What is Franked Mail?

Franked Mail is official mail sent by members and members-elect of Congress, the Vice-President, and other authorized individuals. Mail must relate to the mailer's official business, activities, and duties. Franked Mail has a written or facsimile signature of an authorized user in the upper right corner of the envelope or a franked label, followed by "M.C." standing for member of Congress, or "U.S.S." for U.S. Senate. A Franked Mail label is required for items larger than a flat sized envelope. Franked Mail must not be returned for postage or delivered to the recipient as "postage due."

Franked Mail Envelope

Franked Mail Label

Mass Franked Mailings are identified by Tag 11, Congressional Mail, and are NOT eligible to use the red Tag 57. Franked Mail should not be detained, except for mail security, and must be dispatched and delivered as addressed.

4. How many states use Vote-By-Mail?

Twenty-two states have some form of Vote-By-Mail elections. Three of the 22 states — Oregon, Washington, and Colorado — hold all elections by mail. 19 states besides CO, OR, and WA allow "certain types of elections" to be held entirely by mail. For more information, visit: <http://www.ncsl.org/research/elections-and-campaigns/all-mail-elections.aspx>.

5. How many ballots is the Postal Service projecting it will deliver for this year's elections?

The Postal Service handled more than 25 million return ballots (not including military ballots) in the last Presidential election. The expectation is that there will be more ballots this year since there is another Vote-By-Mail state.

6. How many ballots were delivered to troops around the world in the 2012 general election?

Between September 1, 2012, and November 30, 2012, the Military Postal Service (MPS) received 51,725 absentee ballots from local election offices for distribution to overseas military members. A total of 89,329 voter ballots were transmitted back to the U.S. and local election officials using Priority Mail Express®. The difference between the number of ballots received and transmitted back is likely due to the fact that many voters chose to receive their blank ballots electronically, but printed them out and returned them by mail. The overall average transit of voter ballots from the absentee voter to election offices was 5.6 days. For more information, visit: <https://www.fvap.gov/uploads/FVAP/Reports/2012report.pdf>.

7. Is the Postal Service ready for the increased volume?

Yes. The U.S. Mail is an important part of the U.S. election process, and the Postal Service is confident in its dependable and timely delivery of Election Mail and Political Campaign Mail.

8. Will the service standard changes made last year impact voting by mail in any way?

No. Postal Service representatives are working closely with local and federal election officials to address and alleviate any concerns. The Postal Service is ready and committed to ensuring timely delivery of all election and political campaign mail.

9. What is the Hatch Act?

The Hatch Act (5 U.S.C. §§ 7321-7326) limits certain political activities of most executive branch employees. For example, the law prohibits employees from engaging in political activity while on duty or in the Federal workplace. It also prohibits them from soliciting or receiving political contributions. Employees who violate the Hatch Act are subject to a range of disciplinary actions, including removal from federal service, reduction in grade, debarment from federal employment for a period not to exceed 5 years, suspension, reprimand, or a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000.

10. How does the Hatch Act affect the Postal Service and its employees?

The Postal Service is non-political — meaning the organization cannot and does not support any political party or affiliation over another. The continued effectiveness of this organization depends on the ability to deliver all political mailings without giving the perception that the views of one candidate, political party, or political viewpoint are endorsed over another.

It is the responsibility of all Postal Service employees to know and obey the Hatch Act restrictions. This means that employees may not display political buttons while on postal property or place bumper stickers on a Postal Service vehicle indicating a preference for a specific candidate, party, or a political position. Employees are also urged to not participate in any political discussions where customers are present.

This brief summary does not address all of the Hatch Act prohibitions. For additional information about the Hatch Act, visit the Ethics page on Blue at <http://blue.usps.gov/uspslaw/Ethics.htm>, contact the HQ Ethics Helpline at 202-268-6346, or send an email message to “Ethics Help” (internal email) or ethics.help@usps.gov.

11. What is Vote-By-Mail?

A ballot is automatically mailed to every registered voter in advance of Election Day. Traditional in-person voting precincts are not available.

12. What is No Excuse Absentee Voting?

All states will mail an absentee ballot to certain voters who request one. The voter may return the ballot by mail or in person. In 20 states, an excuse is required, while 27 states and the District of Columbia permit any qualified voter to vote absentee without offering an excuse. Some states offer a permanent absentee ballot list. Once a voter asks to be added to the list, she/he will automatically receive an absentee ballot for all future elections.

13. What are Absentee Ballots?

An absentee ballot is a ballot completed and typically mailed in advance of an election by a voter who is unable to be present at the polls.

14. Does the Postal Service process mail less now than it used to?

No. Mail is processed daily.

15. Do the return ballots need to be postmarked by a certain date?

That varies on a state-by-state basis. There are currently 13 states that require postmarks in order to accept ballots post-election: AL, AK, IL, IA, MD, NY, NC, ND, OH, UT, WA, WV, and WI. Go to your state’s election website for specific information.

16. Do the return ballots need to be postmarked even if there is a meter?

It depends on the location. Go to your state’s election website for specific information.

Political Campaign Mail

Direct mail is the winner's choice. It is the spark that can start voter action. When the message is relevant and personal, it is powerful. And when people listen to power, they are more likely to act. See why, year after year, direct mail continues to prove itself as one of the most engaging and effective channels for winning campaigns — <http://www.deliverthewin.com>.

Objectives

- Emphasize correct use for Tag 57, Political Campaign Mailing.
- Increase attentiveness among employees, so when they encounter official Political Campaign Mail in the mail stream, they always handle it promptly and provide it with equal care and attention.
- Process and deliver Political Campaign Mail in a timely manner.

Key Messages

- The U.S. Mail is an important part of the U.S. election process, and the Postal Service is confident in the dependable and timely delivery of Election Mail and Political Campaign Mail.

Election Mail vs. Political Campaign Mail

- Election Mail is any item mailed to or from authorized election officials that enables citizens to participate in the voting process, such as:
 - Absentee ballots,
 - Vote-By-Mail ballots,
 - Other balloting related materials,
 - Voter registration cards,
 - Absentee applications,
 - Polling place notifications, and
 - Voter reply mail.
- Political Mail is any material mailed at First-Class Mail or Standard Mail rates for political campaign purposes by a registered political candidate, a campaign committee (federal, state, or local), a committee of a political party (Democratic National Committee, Republican Congressional Campaign Committee), or Political Action Committees (PAC), Super-PACs, and other organizations engaging in issue-advocacy or voter mobilization.

What's an Absentee Ballot?

Not all voters can get to the polling place on Election Day. An absentee ballot is the printed ballot marked by an absent voter, sealed in a special envelope, and given or mailed to the municipal clerk.

The number of ballots mailed back to election officials with insufficient postage is on the rise. Each election cycle presents a different set of parameters for ballot creation and for the size and weight of the return mailpiece. Election officials should consult with Postal Service officials to determine the proper postage required for mailing ballots to voters and the return of ballots to election officials.

Absentee and Early Voting

Most states have a method for any eligible voter to cast a ballot before Election Day, either during the early voting period or by requesting an absentee ballot. In 13 states, early voting is not available and an excuse is required to request an absentee ballot.

States offer three ways for voters to cast a ballot before Election Day:

1. Early Voting — In 37 states (including three that mail ballots to all voters for every election) and the District of Columbia, any qualified voter may cast a ballot in person during a designated period prior to Election Day. No excuse or justification is required.
2. Absentee Voting — All states will mail an absentee ballot to certain voters who request one. The voter may return the ballot by mail or in person. In 20 states, an excuse is required, while 27 states and the District of Columbia permit any qualified voter to vote absentee without offering an excuse. Some states offer a permanent absentee ballot list. Once a voter asks to be added to the list, she/he will automatically receive an absentee ballot for all future elections.

- 3. Mail Voting — A ballot is automatically mailed to every eligible voter (no request or application is necessary). In-person voting sites may also be available for voters who would like to vote in-person and to provide additional services to voters. Three states mail ballots to all eligible voters for every election. Other states may provide this option for some types of elections.

Vote-By-Mail

Twenty-two states have provisions allowing certain elections to be conducted entirely by mail. For these elections, all registered voters receive a ballot in the mail. Typically, the voter marks the ballot, puts it in a secrecy envelope or sleeve, places it into a separate mailing envelope, signs an affidavit on the exterior of the mailing envelope, and returns the package via mail or by dropping it off.

Ballots are mailed out well ahead of Election Day, and thus voters have an “election period,” not just a single day, to vote. All-mail elections can be thought of as absentee voting for everyone. This system is also referred to as “Vote-By-Mail.”

Three of the 22 states — Oregon (2000), Washington (2011), and Colorado (2013) — hold all elections entirely by mail. Other states permit all-mail elections in certain circumstances, such as for special districts, municipal elections, when candidates are unopposed, or at the discretion of the county clerk. Traditional in-person voting precincts are not available in these three states. Instead, voters are able to return ballots by mail, in a drop-off location, and in some cases vote in-person at voter centers.

Generally, states begin with providing all-mail elections only in certain circumstances, and then add additional opportunities as citizens become familiar with procedures.

At least 15 states and the District of Columbia, allow some form of permanent absentee voting. In some states, this system is called “permanent mail-in voting.” Permanent absentee voting operates in a similar manner to all-mail elections. Voters in these states can sign up to have a ballot automatically mailed for every election where the voter is eligible.

Tag 57

Tag 57, Political Campaign Mailing, is a red container tag designed to provide visibility to political mail while it's in the mail stream. It can be used for any political campaign mailing by a registered political candidate, campaign committee, and committee of a political party, or political message mailing by a political action committee (PAC), super-PAC, or other organizations engaging in issue advocacy or voter mobilization. A registered political candidate or party is an individual or organization recognized by a government election control authority (national, state, or local), according to Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®).

Tag 57

Tag 191

Tag 191, Domestic and International Mail-In Ballots, is a green container tag that has been in use since November 2007. It may be used by election officials to identify trays and sacks of their ballot mail destined for either domestic or international addresses. The tag (shown right) provides greater visibility to ballot mail during Postal Service handling.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - There should be no discoloration around the dollar amounts, which might indicate the amounts were changes.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at <https://www.usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm>.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Please provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table below outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks should use the table with the POS ONE terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply. Inquiries may be sent to the Military Postal Service Agency at <https://amps.usps.gov/ijy2/frm.htm>.

We have eliminated “Not Active” entries from the table below to save space and paper.

DMM Revision: Military Mail Addressing and Restriction Codes — Update

In Postal Bulletin 22432 dated January 7, 2016, the Postal Service™ announced that effective March 7, 2016, we would revise the restriction codes for military and diplomatic mail and replace the table of APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ and the Restrictions definitions that are currently published in the Pull-Out Information section of the Postal Bulletin. Due to systems issues, these changes are temporarily on hold.

At the same time, we also announced that effective March 7, 2016, we would revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®), subchapter 703.2, to incorporate two restrictions pertaining to the overseas addressing requirements for military mail that are currently Restrictions A1 and A2 in the APO/FPO/DPO table and remove those two current restrictions from the table. We revised the text in the DMM as planned, but we will temporarily keep Restrictions A1 and A2 in the APO/FPO/DPO table.

The updated mailing standards are included in the March 7, 2016, online update of the DMM, which is available via Postal Explorer® at <http://pe.usps.com>.

[Add new 472.25 and Exhibit 472.25, then renumber current 472.25 as 472.26.]

472.25 Minimum Purchasing Age

Several states require purchasers of tobacco to be age 19 or older (see Exhibit 472.25). If not specified, then the minimum age is presumed to be 18 years of age under federal law. Additionally, there are cities and counties across the country that have set minimum purchasing ages above those mandated by their respective states. Postal Service employees should check with their local city and county governments to ensure that those localities do not have supplementary age requirements for tobacco sales.

Exhibit 472.25 Minimum Purchasing Age

Minimum Purchasing Age	Location (State Level)
21 years old	Hawaii
19 years old	Alaska; Alabama; New Jersey; Utah
18 years old	All other states, subject to local law

Information Security

Cybersecurity Lockdown: Keep Your Information and Computer Equipment Safe

Information security is our shared responsibility when we connect online at work and at home. Part of this responsibility includes protecting our workspaces, home desks, and personal and business computer equipment from improper use. CyberSafe at USPS™ offers tips to prevent the theft and misuse of personal or business information.

With tax season around the corner, you must take steps to keep your desk and computer secure. Workstation or computer misuse can happen when an individual does not take the proper precautions to safeguard their workspace. Your workstation at the office and desk area at home may house important, personal, or sensitive/sensitive-enhanced information. Secure the confidentiality of personal or business information by safeguarding your work area.

There are a several ways to prevent information from being used improperly at your workspace or home desk.

To keep information safe:

- Use your workstation for business purposes only and your home desk for personal reasons only.
- Erase contents on whiteboard walls that contain or refer to important or sensitive information.
- Collect any important, personal, sensitive, or sensitive-enhanced information sent to the printer in a timely manner.
- Store printed or handwritten copies of important, personal, sensitive, and sensitive-enhanced information in a locked cabinet or desk drawer.
- Dispose of hard copy documents that are no longer needed.

While using your work or personal computer:

- Set up strong passwords to lock your computer.
- Position your computer monitor so that individuals passing by are not able to “shoulder-surf” or view your data.

Before stepping away from your work or personal computer:

- Exit running applications and close open documents that are not in use before leaving your computer unattended.
- Lock your computer by selecting the CTRL, ALT, DELETE keys simultaneously and then pressing ENTER, or by selecting the Windows and L key.

If your Postal Service™ provided device has been stolen or misused, call the Computer Incident Response Team (CIRT) at 866-877-7247 or send an email to CyberSafe@usps.gov.

Find additional resources on information security and computer viruses on the CyberSafe at USPS website: <http://blue.usps.gov/cyber/>.

USPS® has also partnered with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Stop. Think. Connect.™ campaign. The DHS addresses workstation safety and other information security topics on their website: <https://www.stopthinkconnect.org/>.

Information security is a priority for USPS employees, customers, and suppliers, so keep your information and computer equipment secure.

Pictorial Postmarks Announcement

As a community service, the Postal Service[™] offers pictorial postmarks to commemorate local events celebrated in communities throughout the nation. A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears below. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office[™] station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. Pictorial postmarks are available only for the dates indicated, and requests must be postmarked no later than 30 days following the requested pictorial postmark date.

All requests must include a stamped envelope or postcard bearing at least the minimum First-Class Mail[®] postage. Items submitted for postmark may not include postage issued after the date of the requested postmark. Such items will be returned unserved.

Customers wishing to obtain a postmark should affix stamps to any envelope or postcard of their choice, address the envelope or postcard to themselves or others, insert a card of postcard thickness in envelopes for sturdiness, and tuck in the flap. Place the envelope or postcard in a larger envelope and address it to: Pictorial Postmarks, followed by the Name of the Station, Address, City, State, ZIP+4[®] Code, as listed below.

Customers can also send stamped envelopes and postcards without addresses for postmark, as long as they supply a larger envelope with adequate postage and their return address. How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks Customers have 60 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. They may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by telephone at 800-STAMP-24, or at The Postal Store® website at www.usps.com/shop.

Traditional Postmarks

Customers should affix the stamps to envelopes of their choice, address them to themselves or others, or provide a self-addressed return envelope with sufficient postage large enough to accommodate the canceled item. Mail the request to the corresponding city of issuance. There is no charge for the first 50 postmarks. There is a 5-cent charge for each additional postmark over 50. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment. After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service™ will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.

All postmark requests should go to the first-day-of-issue city. The first-day-of-issue city Post Office will then forward in bulk all postmark requests to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992 by respective Post Offices.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as “laser safe.” The Postal Service recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16" side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2" high x 4" long. Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers should submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers should affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Mail the request for a first-day-of-issue digital color postmark to the corresponding city of issuance. Post Offices will then forward all customer requests for digital color postmarks to Cancellation Services, Stamp Fulfillment Services, PO Box 449992, Kansas City, MO 64144-9992.

After applying the first-day-of-issue postmark, the Postal Service will return the envelopes to the customer by U.S. Mail.
