Cover Story

Turning 20: PMG Heroes' Program Reaches Milestone

Two decades ago, the Postmaster General Heroes' Program couldn't have gotten off to a more dramatic start, thanks to the actions of Wilmington, DE, Letter Carrier Joseph Grabauskas.

In mid-September 2003, he and the rest of the community were worried about the impending Hurricane Isabel. But the remnants of Tropical Storm Henri were barely behind them.

According to The News Journal newspaper, Henri poured up to 10 inches of rain on the area, already soaked from a wetter than normal spring and summer. The deluge spawned flash floods that ranked among the worst since the U.S. Geological Survey began keeping records for northern Delaware's waterways.

Remarkably, Grabauskas recalls, it wasn't even raining at the time he was delivering mail in the low-lying Glenville subdivision. The false sense of security gave way to a life-threatening reality as Red Clay Creek became a raging river around Glenville, soon submerging it in 12 feet of water, trapping the Postal Service™ employee and many residents of more than 270 homes.

Grabauskas was officially credited with securing the mail on higher ground before helping rescuers evacuate people and pets from an apartment complex (see lite-blue.usps.gov/news/link/2003oct06_3.htm).

Looking back in May 2023, shortly before his retirement after 37 years of service, Grabauskas, 59, remembers more details of a haunting day that affected him long afterward. There were other aspects to the experience, he says, some of which weren't publicized, some of which he rarely discusses.

Grabauskas was among the last people rescued from Glenville after efforts that stretched over five hours. Why? Emergency responders couldn't see house numbers at locations where victims were stranded. He was needed to point out addresses.

"They're difficult memories," he says. "There were two kids who let go of their mom as they were trying to reach a rescue boat. The kids were completely submerged, and I reached down and grabbed one, while the other grabbed my leg."

Then there was the customer with two Great Danes that normally "didn't like the mailman." Grabauskas says the dogs were much friendlier as he helped them and their owner reach safety after their rescue boat flipped over.

Although he tried to count blessings of the day — "Nobody died!" — it weighed on him: the exhausting struggle to save terrified customers and pets, the destruction of scores of homes, the devastated lives left behind when the floodwaters receded.

For a few weeks, Grabauskas visited with victims who would gather in Glenville. He participated in community fundraisers. He worked with a USPS Employee Assistance Program therapist to come to terms with the disaster, which eventually led to Glenville's demolition.

And he was soon invited to be commended by then-Postmaster General Jack Potter during a Board of Governors meeting held at Wilmington's Hotel du Pont.

Initially, Grabauskas was hesitant to become the first PMG hero, leading the way for around 5,500 other postal employees recognized in the 20 years since then. The women and men of the PMG Heroes' Program have gone above and beyond the call of duty in a variety of situations, such as assisting lost children, getting help for sick or injured customers, spotting fires, and more.

The program reflects a simple, yet powerful, idea: Postal Service employees know the habits of their customers and the rhythms of their communities and are often the first to notify emergency personnel and render aid when something is wrong.

Employees must be nominated for the PMG Hero Award. Corporate Communications reviews nominations for accuracy, then sends them to the Inspection Service and the Office of Inspector General for approval.

Following approval, each nominee receives a commendation letter from Postmaster General Louis DeJoy. Honorees are also featured in "Heroes' Corner" on the Postal Service's daily employee news site, Link. The column has become a popular mainstay of the publication, and in 2020 it received a national award for excellence in employee communications (see link.usps.com/2020/03/06/our-heroes).

To nominate an employee, complete PS Form 400, Corporate Communications PMG Hero Nomination, and email it to PMG_HeroNominations@usps.gov. To download or print the form, go to usps.link/heroes, where you can also find the "Heroes' Corner" archives and relive two decades of heroism that illustrates how postal employees do so much more for their communities than deliver mail.

Many PMG heroes, like Grabauskas, don't relish the attention. They'll tell you they were simply doing the right thing, as they hope anyone else would do.

"I didn't want the recognition," he says. "I didn't want to hear 'hero' anymore. But I went down for Wilmington. I wanted them all to know: We do good things here."

Effective July 9, 2023, the Postal Service™ will revise Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®), in various sections, to reflect changes regarding Postal Service domestic mailing services product price adjustments.

Environmental Management

Integrated Pest Management: Pesticide Management, Storage, and Disposal

The Postal Service™ uses integrated pest management (IPM) practices and techniques to control pests. IPM emphasizes using safer, more environmentally sound pest procedures, without eliminating the use of pesticides entirely.

Pesticides include insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, and rodenticides, which are all regulated due to the chemicals they contain that can be hazardous to human health, the environment, and water quality. USPS® currently has national IPM contracts in place through the Facility Services CMC, which is the mandatory method for pest management services at all Postal Service sites.

When considering pesticide treatments, USPS employees must:

- Use chemical pesticides only as a last resort (using a USPS IPM national contractor for chemical pesticide application). Only contracted, licensed pesticide applicators may apply chemical pesticides.
- If necessary for minor spot treatments, purchase and apply non-concentrated or pre-mixed pesticides that are suitable for household use. Apply with precision and restraint.
- Never purchase or apply restricted-use pesticides or concentrated pesticides that require mixing. USPS personnel are prohibited from applying restricted-use pesticides and mixing or using concentrated pesticides. Check the label to determine whether a product contains a restricted-use pesticide.
- Do not apply pesticides (or any chemicals) to storm-water retention or detention basins or ponds and exercise caution when applying pesticides around these areas.

For pesticide storage and disposal, USPS employees must:

- Maintain only limited quantities of pest control products. Do not stockpile.

- Store pesticides in their original containers, keeping pesticide containers closed, and follow the storage instructions on the label. If possible, keep all pesticides in a locked cabinet in a well-ventilated utility area.
- Never store pesticides in cabinets near food or medical supplies. Do not store pesticides in places where they might spill or leak into wells, drains, groundwater, or surface water.
- Contractors that apply pesticides must remove all their devices and excess products after completion. If USPS-purchased pesticides cannot be properly used, contact the vendor to inquire if the manufacturer will take back the unused product.
- Do not pour leftover pesticides down the sink, into the toilet, or down a sewer or street drain. Arrange for off-site disposal using the USPS National Hazardous Waste Management Service Contractor available on eBuy+. Maintain shipment and disposal records on-site.
- Do not reuse empty pesticide containers. If containers are empty (i.e., all the liquid product has been removed and used), place the container in the trash, unless the label specifies a different disposal procedure.

For more information about pesticide management:

- Consult your designated USPS environmental contact at blue.usps.gov/sustainability/contact.htm.
- Review the Integrated Pest Management Environmental Compliance Bulletin at blue.usps.gov/sustainability/environmental/_pdf/waste/ecb-pestmanagement.pdf.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international Postal Service money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - When held to the light, a watermark of Benjamin Franklin is repeated from top to bottom on the left side.
 - When held to the light, a dark line (security thread) runs from top to bottom with the word “USPS” repeated.
 - When there is discoloration around the dollar amounts, this might indicate the amounts were changed.

These appear in Postal Service Notice 299, U.S. Postal Money Order Reference Card, or online at usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm.

3. If the money order seems suspicious, call the U.S. Postal Service Money Order Verification System at 866-459-7822.

Provide this information to local banks and retailers, as they also receive Postal Service money orders for cashing.

Other Information

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks must use the table with the Retail System Software terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply.

We have eliminated “Not Active” entries from the table below to save space and paper.

Alzheimer's Disease Awareness Month

Alzheimer's disease is the most common type of dementia. It is a progressive disease beginning with mild memory loss, possibly causing loss of the ability to carry on a conversation and respond to the environment. Alzheimer's disease involves parts of the brain that control thought, memory, and language. It can seriously affect a person's ability to carry out daily activities.

Scientists do not fully understand what causes Alzheimer's disease. They believe there are several factors that can affect each person differently. Age is the best-known risk factor for Alzheimer's disease. There is growing evidence that people who adopt healthy lifestyle habits — like regular exercise and blood pressure management — can lower their risk of dementia. Physical activity, a nutritious diet, limited alcohol consumption, and not smoking may also help to lower the risk of Alzheimer's disease.

In 2020, 5.8 million Americans were living with Alzheimer's disease. This number is projected to nearly triple to 14 million people by 2060. Symptoms of the disease can first appear after age 60 and the risk increases with age. Younger people may also get Alzheimer's disease, but it is less common.

Memory problems are usually one of the first signs of Alzheimer's disease. Other signs in addition to memory problems are:

- Repeating questions.
- Trouble handling money and paying bills.
- Difficulty completing familiar tasks.
- Decreased or poor judgment.
- Misplacing things and being unable to retrace steps to find them.
- Changes in mood, personality, or behavior.

You can find out more about Alzheimer's disease on the CDC website at cdc.gov/aging/aginginfo/alzheimers.htm.

A list of events for which pictorial postmarks are authorized appears on the following pages. The sponsor of the pictorial postmark appears in italics under the date. Also provided are illustrations of these postmarks.

People attending these local events may obtain the postmark in person at the temporary Post Office™ station established there. Those who cannot attend the event but who wish to obtain the postmark may submit a mail order request. How to Order the First-Day-of-Issue Digital Color or Traditional Postmarks Customers have 120 days to obtain the first-day-of-issue postmarks by mail. Each cover must have sufficient postage to meet First-Class Mail® requirements. Customers may purchase new stamps at their local Post Office™, by phone at 844-737-7826, or on The Postal Store® website at usps.com/shop.

Digital Color Postmarks

Only select stamp issues offer a digital color postmark. Customers may submit #6 or #10 envelopes constructed of paper rated as “laser safe.” The Postal Service™ recommends envelopes of 80-pound Accent Opaque, acid-free, 9/16-inch side seams with no glue on the flap. The maximum size of all digital color postmarks is 2 inches (vertically) by 4 inches (horizontally). Allow sufficient space on the envelope to accommodate the postmark. Do not use self-adhesive labels for addresses on the envelope. Two test envelopes must be included. There is a minimum of 10 envelopes at 50 cents per postmark required at the time of servicing. Customers must submit a check, money order, or credit card for payment.

The Postal Service reserves the right to not accept hand-painted and other cachet envelopes that are not compatible with our digital color postmark equipment. The Postal Service also reserves the right to substitute traditional black rubber postmarks if use of nonspecified envelopes results in poor image quality or damage to equipment.

Customers must affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of their postmarked items. Address customer requests for digital color postmarks to:
