Cover Story

Don't Trip Up, Make Safety A Priority

Slips, trips, and falls remain one of the leading causes of workplace injuries across the Postal Service™, impacting all employees. Whether it is a wet floor, uneven surface, cluttered walkway, or poorly lit area, these hazards can cause serious injuries and disrupt daily operations.

Recognizing and addressing potential hazards early not only helps prevent accidents but also supports a safer and more efficient workplace for everyone. Safety begins with awareness, taking a few extra seconds to identify and report hazards can make a lasting difference.

Employees must be diligent about examining their path and work area for hazards. Report hazards to your supervisor using PS Form 1767, Report of Hazard, Unsafe Condition, or Practice. Supervisors can be proactive in preventing slips, trips, and falls by documenting unsafe practices and conditions, while conducting employee observations and removing reported hazards.

The following tips can help prevent these incidents:

- Wear proper footwear. Choose high-traction, slip-resistant footwear.
- Stay away from wet leaves, slippery surfaces, or icy areas, whenever possible. Shorten your steps and shuffle your feet when near slippery surfaces.
- Be alert. On the workroom floor or out on the route, things change quickly. Always remain focused, alert, and ready to react to the conditions in front of you.

- Where available, use handrails or other stable supports. Holding on to something keeps you steady when ascending and descending stairs.
- When entering and exiting vehicles, keep one hand on the vehicle or grab bar, so that you can catch yourself if you start to slip.
- Don't carry a load you can't see over.

Housekeeping is also important for preventing slips, trips, and falls:

- Keep walkways, aisles, and stairs free of tools, materials, and other hazards.
- Store cords, power cables, and air hoses out of walkways.
- Keep the floor clear of trash and plastic straps.
- Block off and mark floors, or areas that are being cleaned or repaired.
- Promptly clean leaks or spills on floors, stairs, entryways, and loading docks.

Safety is a shared commitment. When each employee takes responsibility for identifying and abating hazards, the entire USPS® team benefits. Every reported hazard and every careful step contribute to a culture where safety is valued and practice daily.

IMM Revision: Discontinuation of International Surface Air Lift Service

Effective January 18, 2026, the Postal Service™ is revising Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, International Mail Manual (IMM®) to terminate International Surface Air Lift® (ISAL®) service.

On September 5, 2025, the Postal Service filed a request to remove International Surface Air Lift (ISAL) from the competitive product list in Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) Docket No. MC2025-1676, which the PRC favorably reviewed on October 30, 2025, in Order No. 9320. Therefore, the Postal Service is revising the IMM to reflect the discontinuation of ISAL service as a competitive product, effective January 18, 2026. Notice 123, Price List, will be updated accordingly.

Do Not Cash — Upon Receipt, Notify Local Postal Inspectors

Provide this listing to all Postal Service™ employees responsible for accepting and cashing postal money orders. Destroy all interim notices when the numbers listed appear in the Postal Bulletin. The new money order serial numbers consist of the first 9 digits. The tenth digit is a check digit only.

Do not cash outdated money orders 104 151 601 to 692 600 000. Advise holders to send invalid money orders to Canada Post Corporation, Ottawa, Canada K1A 0B1. Check for altered dollar amounts by holding money orders to the light.

Verifying U.S. Postal Service Money Orders

Follow these steps to cash a Postal Service™ money order:

1. Check that the amount does not exceed the legal limit: $1,000 for domestic, and $700 for international Postal money orders.
2. Check that the proper security features are present:
 - For the legacy, green Postal Service money orders:
 - a. Green coloring at the top and bottom.
 - b. A U.S. Mail eagle logo in the center.
 - c. A left-side watermark of Benjamin Franklin repeating top to bottom that is only visible when held up to a light source.
 - d. On the right of the Benjamin Franklin watermark, a vertical, multicolored security thread with the letters “USPS®” weaves in and out of the paper.
 - e. Discoloration around the dollar amounts might indicate the amounts were changed.
 - For the new red and blue Postal Service money orders:
 - a. Red and blue ink with subtle design features of an eagle head and an American flag.
 - b. Two watermarks that are only visible when held up to a light source:
 1. A watermark of a Pony Express® rider.
 2. A watermark that reads “United States Postal Service” in a rectangular box.

- c. A security thread that runs from the top to the bottom of the Postal Service money order, just to the right of the Pony Express rider watermark. When held to the light, the thread reveals the letters “USPS” alternating right side up and upside down throughout the thread.
- d. A Quick Response (QR) code that directs users to the USPS website to verify the status of money orders using three pieces of information.
- e. Discoloration around the dollar amounts might indicate the amounts were changed.

These features also appear at usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm.

If you or a customer suspects fraud, follow the guidance from the U.S. Postal Inspection Service:

- If you question the validity of a Postal Money Order, use the Money Order Verification System at 1-866-459-7822.
- You can also check the money order status at usps.com/shop/money-orders.htm. Go to “Check Money Order Status” and input the information.
- If you suspect fraud or criminal activity, call the Inspection Service at 1-877-876-2455 at your earliest convenience.

The legacy, green Postal Service money order will stay in circulation until all existing stock is depleted. As of October 1, 2024, USPS no longer sells international money orders. USPS will no longer cash international money orders after September 30, 2025.

Overseas Military/Diplomatic Mail

Mail addressed to military and diplomatic post offices overseas is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The APO/FPO/DPO table outlines these conditions by APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions page following the table).

Acceptance clerks must use the table with the Retail System Software terminal to determine which APO/FPO/DPO ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply.

The entries under “Changes” appear in bold in the following APO/FPO/DPO table:

Freely Associated States Restrictions

We list the mailing restrictions for Freely Associated States (FAS) in the Pull-Out section of the Postal Bulletin. All FAS Restrictions will be updated periodically.

Freely Associated States

Mail addressed to freely associated states is subject to certain conditions or restrictions of mailing regarding content, preparation, and handling. The following FAS Restrictions table outlines these conditions as listed by each affected FAS ZIP Code™ through the use of footnoted mailing restrictions codes (see the Restrictions following the table). For more information on available extra services for FAS destinations, see Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®), part 503.

Acceptance clerks must use the table with the Retail System Software terminal to determine which FAS ZIP Codes are active and which conditions of mailing apply.

2026 Social Security and Medicare Tax Withholding Rates and Limits

For 2026, the maximum limit on earnings for withholding of Social Security (Old-Age, Survivors, and Disability Insurance) Tax is $184,500. The Social Security Tax Rate remains at 6.2 percent. The resulting maximum Social Security Tax for 2025 is $11,439.00.

There is no limit on the amount of earnings subject to Medicare (Hospital Insurance) Tax. The Medicare Tax Rate applies to all taxable wages and remains at 1.45 percent with the exception of an “additional Medicare Tax” assessed against all taxable wages paid in excess of the applicable threshold (see Note). The FICA Tax Rate, which is the combined Social Security rate of 6.2 percent and the Medicare rate of 1.45 percent, remains 7.65 percent for 2026 (or 8.55 percent for taxable wages paid in excess of the applicable threshold).

The information in the following table shows the changes in Social Security (no changes in Medicare limits) withholding limits from 2025 to 2026.

Tax	2025 Limit	2026 Limit
Social Security Gross	$176,100.00	$184,500.00
Social Security Liability	$10,918.20	$11,439.00
Medicare Gross	No Limit	No Limit
Medicare Liability	No Limit	No Limit

Note: The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act signed into law March 23, 2010, created the “additional Medicare Tax” that changed Medicare withholding computations effective January 1, 2013. All wages, self-employment income, and other compensation that are subject to regular Medicare Tax and are paid in excess of the applicable threshold are subject to the additional Medicare Tax. Employers are required to withhold the additional Medicare Tax at a 0.9 percent rate on wages and other compensation it pays to an employee in excess of $200,000 in a calendar year. There is no employer match for the additional Medicare Tax.

Wage Overpayment Indebtedness – Tax Treatment

When a Postal Service™ employee is overpaid, the Postal Service establishes an account receivable for the overpayment and initiates the collection of the debt from the employee through the process described in the Employee and Labor Relations Manual (ELM), in either ELM 450, Collection of Postal Debts from Non-bargaining Unit Employees, or ELM 460, Collection of Postal Debts from Bargaining Unit Employees.

If the overpayment occurred in a prior year, the Postal Service bills the employee for the gross amount of the overpayment. The gross amount includes the net amount of the check/direct deposit plus all payroll-related taxes withheld and other miscellaneous deductions or allotments. The wages paid in error in the year before remain W-2 reportable and taxable to the employee for that year. This is because the employee received and had use of those funds during that year. If repayment is made within 3 years of the issuance of the W-2 that includes the overpayment, the employee is entitled to a refund of Social Security (if applicable) and Medicare taxes from the Postal Service. The employee is not entitled to file an amended return (Form 1040X) to recover the federal income tax paid on these wages. Instead, the employee may be entitled to a deduction (or credit in some case) for the repaid wages on his or her income tax return for the year of repayment (IRS Publication 15). Employees are encouraged to seek the services of a qualified tax preparer if they have questions.

If the overpayment occurred in the current year, the Postal Service initially bills the employee for only the net value of the overpayment; federal, state, local, Social Security (if applicable), and Medicare taxes are not part of the bill. However, if an employee has not fully repaid the overpayment by the end of the tax year (December 31, 2025), the Postal Service must report the unreturned value of the overpayment as taxable income on the employee’s Form W-2.

Additionally, the employee must now pay appropriate federal, state, local, and FICA or Medicare taxes on the remaining value of the unpaid debt. The Postal Service establishes a second account receivable to collect these taxes at the close of the tax year for the value of the taxes the employee owes related to the unpaid debt. The debt collection processes in ELM 450 and ELM 460 are used to collect the additional debt.

Seasonal Depression

Seasonal depression, or Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD), affects many people by causing low moods or “winter blues” during the shorter days of fall and winter, with symptoms often improving in spring as daylight increases.

In most cases, SAD symptoms start in late fall or early winter and go away during the spring and summer, known as winter-pattern SAD or winter depression. Other people experience depressive symptoms during the spring and summer months, known as summer-pattern SAD or summer depression. Summer-pattern SAD is less common.

Symptoms of SAD include the following:

- Persistent sad, anxious, or “empty” mood most of the day, nearly every day, for at least 2 weeks.
- Feelings of hopelessness or pessimism.
- Feelings of irritability, frustration, or restlessness.
- Feelings of guilt, worthlessness, or helplessness.
- Loss of interest or pleasure in hobbies and activities.

- Decreased energy, fatigue, or feeling slowed down.
- Changes in sleep or appetite, or unplanned weight changes.
- Thoughts of death or suicide, or suicide attempts.
- Social withdrawal (feeling like “hibernating”).

SAD symptoms typically start in late fall or early winter and go away during the rest of the year.

If you or someone you know is showing symptoms of SAD, talk to a health care provider or a mental health specialist about your concerns. They may have you fill out a questionnaire to determine if your symptoms meet the criteria for SAD.

For more information about Seasonal Affective Disorder, go to: medlineplus.gov.

Spot the Latest Online Scams

It is the time of year when everyone is trying to find the perfect gift via online shopping. While shopping from your favorite website is quick and convenient, it could make you a victim to online scams if not careful. Therefore, as cyber-criminals grow bolder during the holiday season, now is the perfect time to double down on security by adhering to safe online shopping habits and safeguarding your personal and financial information.

To avoid online scams, USPS® asks you to follow these tips:

- Check for the padlock icon. Use secure websites with https:// and a closed padlock icon.
- Use a secure payment method. Using credit cards will provide more protection against theft than using debit cards. And make sure to monitor your statements or account for unauthorized charges.
- Shop trusted sites. When buying gifts or donating to a charity, verify the website’s legitimacy. Websites with misspellings, grammatical errors, or numeric addresses in the website domain could indicate the site is fake.

- Ignore popup prize and sales ads. These ads may offer you deals too good to be true and they can lead to fraudulent sites that steal your personal information.
- Slow down. Be suspicious of urgent messaging and requests to act fast.
- Don’t click on suspicious links. Don’t click on links from unsolicited emails or text messages.
- Report it. If you fall victim to a scam, immediately contact the FBI’s Internet Crime Complaint Center at ic3.gov/.

For more information about online scams, go to the Monthly Campaign page on Blue at blue.usps.gov/cyber/communications.htm#accordion1s10.

Stamp Announcement 26-2: Muhammad Ali Stamps

© 2025 USPS

On January 15, 2026, in Louisville, KY, the United States Postal Service® will issue the Muhammad Ali stamps (Forever® priced at the First-Class Mail® rate), in two designs, in a pressure-sensitive adhesive (PSA) pane of 20 stamps (Item 487600). These stamps will go on sale nationwide January 15, 2026, and must not be sold or canceled before the first-day-of-issue. The Muhammad Ali commemorative pane of 20 stamps must not be split and the stamps must not be sold individually.

Known as “The Greatest,” Muhammad Ali™ (1942–2016) was a three-time heavyweight boxing champion. In his life, he challenged the best fighters in the world — and the world itself. Two stamps feature a cropped, black and white AP photo of him from 1974 in his boxing stance. One stamp features the photo of Ali on the top half of the stamp with the name ALI written in dark brown letters below it. “THE GREATEST” runs up the right side of the “I.” On the second stamp, his photo is featured on the bottom half with ALI in red letters above it. Again, “THE GREATEST” runs up the right side of the “I.” The stamps are designed in a checkerboard configuration on the pane. The selvage shows a black and white 1976 AP photo of him in a pin-stripe suit, representing his role as a humanitarian. Art director Antonio Alcalá designed the stamps and pane.

Customers must affix the stamps to the envelopes and address them to themselves or others for return through the mail. Or, they may include an additional self-addressed return envelope, large enough to accommodate their canceled items, with sufficient postage affixed for return of
