

Dane A. Coleman

Vice President, Regional Processing Operations, Eastern

Dane Coleman was named vice president, Regional Processing Operations, Eastern in August 2020. In this role, he is responsible for overseeing operations, including mail processing and distribution throughout six eastern regional divisions: Chesapeake, Coastal Southeast, Lakeshores, Mid-Atlantic, New England and New York Metro.

The eastern region is comprised of approximately 120 plants covering 1.4 million miles that encompasses half of the U.S., including the U.S. Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico. Coleman reports to the chief logistics and processing operations officer and executive vice president.

Coleman began his postal career in November 1986 as a distribution clerk in Easton, MD. His previous executive assignments include manager, Operations Support (Area) for the Northeast Area; district manager, Baltimore MD and manager, Operations Integration and Support at USPS Headquarters in Washington, DC. He served in several executive detail positions, which include acting plant manager, Philadelphia Network Distribution Center and acting chief of staff for chief operating officer David Williams. Most recently, he served as the acting area vice president, Northeast Area, where he managed more than 30 plants, 4,000 delivery and retail units and approximately 90,000 employees.

Coleman has completed the Senior Executive Assessment and Leadership Center, Executive Leadership and Executive Foundations programs and is Lean Six Sigma Green Belt certified. He was a recipient of the National Engagement Leader of the Year Award in 2019.

September 2020