

Sara Bambrough

Acting Vice President, Strategic Sales

Sara Bambrough was named acting vice president, Strategic Sales, in October 2026. She reports to the senior vice president of Sales in the Chief Commercial Officer organization.

In this role, Bambrough leads the development and execution of sales strategies to grow the largest enterprise accounts for the Postal Service, overseeing a $25 billion commercial portfolio. She provides strategic leadership in advancing channel partnerships, expanding platform integrations and strengthening relationships with leading ecommerce marketplaces and shipping partners. She leads a team of account professionals responsible for increasing the Postal Service market share and delivering innovative, customer centric solutions to position the organization as a preferred shipping and delivery partner.

Before, Bambrough served as director, Shipping Business Alliances, where she led the development and execution of strategic channel partnerships to increase the Postal Service's volume and revenue.

Bambrough began her Postal Service career in 2013 as a city carrier assistant in Minneapolis, Minnesota. She has worked in a variety of roles concentrated in Sales, including district sales manager; and manager, Sales Communications. Her first executive detail was in 2020, when she served as acting director, Customer Account Management. In 2021, she served as acting director, International Sales.

Bambrough has a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, and has completed graduate studies in Public Service Executive Leadership. She is a graduate of the Postal Service's Management Leadership Program, Advanced Leadership Program, and is a certified Lean Six Sigma Yellow Belt.
